12/23/25	Structure Fire	28384 REY DE COPAS Ln	E71 arrived at the reported address to find nothing showing from the exterior. Upon investigating the inside of the structure it was determined that a small independent wall heater had begun smoking after being switched on by the resident. There was the faint smell of smoke only within the room with the heater. Further investigation revealed charring inside the heating unit isolated to the unit itself. Thermal imaging of the wall also showed no abnormal heat signatures within the wall. It was suspected that the wall units began smoking due to debris accumulation within it prior to being turned on. No flame or fire described by the tenant or observed by fire personnel, smoke only.	Property: $500 Contents: $0
