Space is limited. Please call at least 1 week prior to when you'd like to attend.

NLSLA is offering low-income Woolsey Fire survivors free assistance creating estate planning documents. The clinic will be conducted remotely (by telephone or video conference), except for the signing of final documents, which must be done in person. Clinic participants and staff will follow safety guidelines at the document signing.

We can help with:

- Preparing a will
- Power of attorney
- Healthcare directive
- Creating a trust
