Laboratory Report

Introduction: This report package contains total of 3 pages divided into 3 sections:

Case Narrative	(1 pages)	: An overview of the work performed at FGL.
Sample Results	(1 page)	: Results for each sample submitted.
Quality Control	(1 page)	: Supporting Quality Control (QC) results.

Case Narrative

This Case Narrative pertains to the following samples:

Sample Description	Date Sampled	Date Received	FGL Lab ID #	Matrix
19F0315-01	06/13/2019	06/17/2019	SP 1907905-001	WW

Sampling and Receipt Information: All samples were received in acceptable condition and within temperature requirements, unless noted on the Condition Upon Receipt (CUR) form. All samples arrived on ice. All samples were prepared and analyzed within the method specified hold time. All samples were checked for pH if acid or base preservation is required (except for VOAs). For details of sample receipt information, please see the attached Chain of Custody and Condition Upon Receipt Form.

Quality Control: All samples were prepared and analyzed according to the following tables:

Inorganic - Wet Chemistry QC

	06/28/2019:207371 All preparation quality controls are within established criteria

Certification:: I certify that this data package is in compliance with ELAP standards, both technically and for completeness, except for any conditions listed above. Release of the data contained in this data package is authorized by the Laboratory Director or his designee, as verified by the following electronic signature.

KD:DMB

Definition

ICB	: Initial Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
CCV	: Continuing Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
CCB	: Continuing Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
Blank	: Method Blank - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not contributing contamination to the samples.
LCS	: Laboratory Control Standard/Sample - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
MS	: Matrix Spikes - A random sample is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSD	: Matrix Spike Duplicate of MS/MSD pair - A random sample duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSRPD	: MS/MSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The MS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
ND	: Non-detect - Result was below the DQO listed for the analyte.
DQO	: Data Quality Objective - This is the criteria against which the quality control data is compared.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions related about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by Client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, suits, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Persons, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation loss of profit or business interruption) litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by Client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials or mixtures such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, waste and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's SSA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations or the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law or any applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities. Communication or other reporting to the public of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or connecting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be actioned in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times. Without client notification or acceptance, for short holding times, 72 hours, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least ninety (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

The following report contains the results for the one aqueous sample received on July 15, 2019. This sample was analyzed for 2,3,7,8-TCDD by EPA 1613B. Routine turn-around time was provided for this work.

Continuing Calibration Verification (CCV) Requirements
All associated calibration verification standard(s) (CCV) met the acceptance criteria.

This work was authorized under Pat-Chem Laboratories' Project # 19G0196.

The report consists of a Cover Letter, Sample Inventory (Section I), Data Summary (Section II), Sample Tracking (Section VI), and Qualifiers/Abbreviations (Section VII). Raw Data (Section III), Continuing Calibration (Section IV), and Initial Calibration (Section V) are available in a full report (.pdf format) upon request.

If you have any questions regarding this report, please feel free to contact me at (916)932-5011.

CASE NARRATIVE

The sample was received outside the EPA recommended temperature of less than or equal to 6° C.

EPA 548:
The endothal recovery for the matrix spike (MS) was below the lower acceptance limit. The recovery was within acceptance limits in the laboratory control sample/laboratory control sample duplicate (LCS/LCSD) indicating the analytical batch was in control.

EPA 549.2:
Diquat strongly adsorbs to soil particles that are suspended in water. The strong chemical bonds make the herbicide chemically inactive. When bound with soil particles, the extraction procedure for method EPA 549.2 is ineffective at isolating the bound diquat. Any reported diquat represents the dissolved analyte in the water that has not been bound to the soil particles.

Laboratory Report

Introduction: This report package contains total of 7 pages divided into 3 sections:

Case Narrative	(2 pages)	: An overview of the work performed at FGL.
Sample Results	(2 pages)	: Results for each sample submitted.
Quality Control	(3 pages)	: Supporting Quality Control (QC) results.

Case Narrative

This Case Narrative pertains to the following samples:

Sample Description	Date Sampled	Date Received	FGL Lab ID #	Matrix
19G0196-01	07/09/2019	07/12/2019	SP 1909145-001	W

Sampling and Receipt Information: All samples were received in acceptable condition and within temperature requirements, unless noted on the Condition Upon Receipt (CUR) form. All samples arrived at 4 °C. All samples were prepared and analyzed within the method specified hold time. All samples were checked for pH if acid or base preservation is required (except for VOAs). For details of sample receipt information, please see the attached Chain of Custody and Condition Upon Receipt Form.

Quality Control: All samples were prepared and analyzed according to the following tables:

Inorganic - Metals QC

200.8	07/19/2019:210972 All analysis quality controls are within established criteria.
	07/19/2019:208132 All preparation quality controls are within established criteria, except: The following note applies to Uranium: 435 Sample matrix may be affecting this analyte. Data was accepted based on the LCS or CCV recovery.

Radio QC

900.0	07/31/2019:211606 All analysis quality controls are within established criteria.
	07/24/2019:208290 All preparation quality controls are within established criteria, except: The following note applies to Gross Alpha: 435 Sample matrix may be affecting this analyte. Data was accepted based on the LCS or CCV recovery.

ND=Non-Detected. PQL=Practical Quantitation Limit. * PQL adjusted for dilution.

MDA = Minimum Detectable Activity (Calculated at the 95% confidence level) = Data utilized by DHS to determine matrix interference.
MCL / AL = Maximum Contamination Level / Action Level. Alpha's Action Level of 5 pCi/L is based on the Assigned Value (AV).
AV = Assigned Value(Gross Alpha Result + (0.84 x Error)). CCR Section 64442: Drinking Water Compliance Note: Do the following
If Gross Alpha's (AV) exceeds 5 pCi/L run Uranium. If Gross Alpha's (AV) minus Uranium exceeds 5 pCi/L run Radium 226.

Drinking Water Compliance:
Gross Alpha (AV) minus Uranium is less than or equal to 15 pCi/L
Uranium is less than or equal to 20 pCi/L
Radium 226 + Radium 228 is less than or equal to 5 pCi/L

Note: Samples are held for 3-6 months prior to disposal.

Definition

CCV	: Continuing Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
CCB	: Continuing Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
Blank	: Method Blank - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not contributing contamination to the samples.
LCS	: Laboratory Control Standard/Sample - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
MS	: Matrix Spikes - A random sample is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSD	: Matrix Spike Duplicate of MS/MSD pair - A random sample duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSRPD	: MS/MSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The MS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
ND	: Non-detect - Result was below the DQO listed for the analyte.

Explanation

435	: Sample matrix may be affecting this analyte. Data was accepted based on the LCS or CCV recovery.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which have agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule, as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (or services agreed upon) only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in written which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. Any variant or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to be only a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), QA Watchdog (QAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the lowliest amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order or a bid proposal releases PCL from any liability or claims in the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions at and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for, delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the services materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall at no time be disclosed to any such individual or organization available to the public or to the public at large or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered and otherwise in accord of the agreement, subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for any disclosure inadvertent or otherwise, not caused by PCL's gross negligence or willful misconduct. PCL agrees to use reasonable commercial care for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall be solely responsible for all use of reports, data or information. Client will not publish or allow to any third party any interpretation, opinion or conclusion without written consent of PCL.

10 Hold Harmless

Client hereby agrees to at all times, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and proceedings, including, but not limited to all costs thereto, including attorneys fees and costs arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or client's failure, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 2. Injury, damage or death of persons 3. Loss of, damage to, breach of, loss of use of, property and/or 4. Environmental damage of every kind or character. The indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, claims, damages or liabilities which arise out of the sole negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, the indemnity shall continue, apply to, cover, name and apply against any and every claim and cause of action set forth in this section, even after the termination of this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client may have to PCL and the PCL shall be compensated for such. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, expenses or other fees including without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, fines for and in each judgment collection, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement except claims in the grounding party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples exclusively for analysis (such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, Barbecue or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous Material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portion of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policies. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all biological analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable prices and rates in effect at the time of execution of the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. Price schedules subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when invoice is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit worthiness has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are Net 15 days with thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by all applicable law, any amount unpaid within the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees for specific fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the residents of any entity, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. For analyses with holding times of 24 hours or less, samples must arrive within 16 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before inspection to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short holding times of 48 hours or less (turnaround 8-9 hours) must be delivered the same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been listed on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these terms and conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule, as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

the client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No conflicting or additional terms and condition expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), U.S. Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) for the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the samples made/taken provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, operators, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees, fine, judgment and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or 1. transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 2. injury, illness or death of persons, 3. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or, 4. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which coverage shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption). Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or the services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or described as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portion of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for asbestos personal analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect on the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or credit analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to these Terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative. Additional authorization orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries/No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have non responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 168 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without levying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 0-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" (herein these "Terms and Conditions") sets forth the general terms and conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any addendum or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or refreshed from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services as defined herein only upon the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall govern all of PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not expressly state the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written order of consult (LOC) to PCL. Any such order/consult is an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and is an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No course of additional or this and conditions shall confirm a client's consent shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall include all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of care prevailing in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) for the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to select from these methodologies it necessary or appropriate based on the nature of compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Limitations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or own QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its affiliates, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for assuring PCL of the safe and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the reports prepared solely and exclusively for Client pursuant to the terms of this LOC shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public at the time such information is first disclosed by PCL. In all services rendered or to be rendered in relation to the agreements subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process, PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data unless such standard was violated. PCL's reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and PCL agrees that it shall not disclose to third parties any such reports, data or information. Client shall not disclose to any third party who is not a client any test results, software programs or other technologies.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, causes of action, suits, and liabilities of every kind, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, relating to any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL and such holding agreement and/or any publication, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. Client hereby waives any and all claims against PCL and all agents, employees, officers, directors, successors and assigns of every kind and nature whatsoever. This indemnity shall not apply to any of the foregoing losses, claims, damages or injuries caused solely by the active negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees, but this indemnity shall apply to any such losses, claims, damages or injuries caused by any negligent act or omission of Client or to any such losses, claims, damages or injuries caused by the active or passive negligence or willful misconduct of any third party, including but not limited to independent contractors, consultants and agents of Client, except for the sole negligence or willful misconduct of PCL. Client's duty to indemnify PCL includes the duty to defend it in any such claim, suit or action, with counsel of PCL's choice, provided that PCL reasonably cooperates in the defense of such claim, suit or action. Reasonable cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, making available all pertinent information under the control of Client, including witnesses, documents, retainers and experts, and obtaining the testimony of Client's witnesses and experts. Client's obligation to indemnify PCL includes reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and other expenses incurred by PCL in connection with the defense of any claim, suit or action. In the event Client refuses or neglects to defend PCL as required and it is subsequently determined by a court of competent jurisdiction or by admission of Client that PCL was entitled to indemnification hereunder because Client refused or neglected to defend PCL, Client shall pay to PCL all costs, damages and attorneys' fees incurred by PCL in obtaining such indemnification.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide any PCL with reasonable information regarding samples and/or materials, properties of tested, hazards, and any other hazardous or noncontaminant, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or classified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (collectively, "Hazardous Substances"). Client understands that PCL may perform services that may involve Hazardous Substances, and agrees that any Hazardous Material received by PCL from client or at client's request at all times the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of unconsumed portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies, in the event the client does not specify its preferred method for disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples, also to contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for analysis for metal analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee (per sample submitted) in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client agrees that PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price in effect at the time of operations or the date the services were rendered or materials supplied and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or under terms is completely required for all new clients until a history of prompt payment and credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by law an administration fee, any amount subject to the thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month or the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are submitted through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client agrees to pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in search that associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective unless in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and the client authorized representative. Verbal instructions orders for additional services may be carried out in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports to indirectly PCL. Client is retaining services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client waives, warrants, and agrees that said data, information, and reports are not negotiable, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or syndication of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification of or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered or even mailed after 5pm on weekdays, without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times may be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 24 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet turning times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (7 days), samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria) should not be delivered after same day in order to meet short holding times be met. After hours, site delivery, freight company delays or sample receipt are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed at additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these terms and conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule, as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

"For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or Client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered as it otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own proprietary data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence (or breach of contract) by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption). Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in Accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law or applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.50%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by attorneys, the Client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by authorized officers of PCL and by clients authorized representative. Acceptance of subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client requirements, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or in support of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours (unless otherwise noted) to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 3-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are sent to or sent by "Client" meaning the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and receive a quote, work permit, receipt and representations. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and indicates orders for services are offered exclusively upon and subject to the following contractual terms and conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written order of services to/from PCL. Any such order constitutes an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and is an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services shall constitute the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No ordinary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's documents shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purposes of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession where applicable. PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), 40 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or representatives to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the quoted amount for such services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or analytical releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of this agreement (subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process). PCL agrees to maintain standard of care in accordance with industry practice. Data and charts will be released only to the client against payment of any and all sums owed to PCL. Any and all PCL reports and information prepared hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and PCL agrees that it will not provide any third party with any reports, data or information regarding technical information, software, programs or other financial issues.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and indemnifies, defends and holds PCL, its employees, officers, directors, parents, affiliates, subsidiaries and agents harmless from and against any and all claims, losses and damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, court fees, litigation expenses and amounts arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or as related to any handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. In no event, however, shall PCL be liable for any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses shall include, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the cost of in-house counsel employed by Client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client or the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples exclusively for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, herbicides or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL does not accept samples containing or consisting of items often encountered or unrecognized in any judicial or administrative interpretation of any, but not the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis shall be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Except as set out in PCL's acceptance with PCL's applicable price schedule, no client shall have any of its claims on the other party waived, released or with prices quoted and fully paid for in advance. The prices set forth in the Price Schedule are subject to change at any time in the discretion of PCL. In addition, all prices are subject to change without notice in the event that PCL is unable to establish credit terms with the client. Unless otherwise established in writing, all invoices are due and payable in full upon receipt. The client's payment of charges are due 15 days from invoice date. In the event a client fails to pay its invoices, the client shall be responsible for all of PCL's collection costs and expenses including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, court costs and collection agency charges. If client's account is not paid when due, PCL shall be entitled to charge interest on the unpaid balance at the rate of 1.5% per month or the highest rate permitted by law, whichever is less. Client shall pay all taxes, duties and assessments of any nature, however designated, levied or imposed by any governmental authority on or measured by any transaction between PCL and client, including, but not limited to, sales, use, excise, value added, gross receipts, and services taxes, but excluding taxes based on the net income of PCL. Client shall pay all charges for services, whether or not client has received an invoice for such charges, within 30 days after the date of the invoice. Client shall pay interest on all late payments at the rate of 1.5% per month (18% per annum) or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. Client shall also pay all of PCL's costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with the collection of late payments. Client shall pay all charges for services, whether or not client has received an invoice for such charges, within 30 days after the date of the invoice. Client shall pay interest on all late payments at the rate of 1.5% per month (18% per annum) or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. Client shall also pay all of PCL's costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with the collection of late payments.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes to this agreement are not binding unless they are in writing and executed by an authorized representative of PCL and the client. Authorized representatives, except those subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use or reliance on data, information or reports provided by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent for others, or any other representative capacity. Any other person or entity is not agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports, or any representations, warranties, and agrees that any data, information and reports are not represented, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the performance, understanding, or utilization of any, securities, any persons, or other persons relating to the holders of any security, the pricing, appropriateness, reliability, or expression of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the ability of any person to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analysis are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are received on weekends or after business hours or holidays without prior notification and acceptance. Unrealistic holding times and storage conditions should be evaluated prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 24 days or less (samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times within applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before application to ensure that the holding time can be met. Short holding times (7 days or less) are critical and it is found to not be sufficient for same day or next day to allow for analytical holding times are met. Short holding times, freight, customs delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the quote issue date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed of at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been included on the fee schedule. However, in the event that a situation arises where pick up or sampling is unnecessary, delays during the pick up or sampling, inability to locate or access the

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL is to serve as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined hereinafter) within the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in written which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written order (if accepted by PCL). Any such order constitutes Client acceptance of the Client of PCL's offer to do business with the Client under the Terms and conditions and (if an agreement has been signed by those terms and conditions). The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or Client's consulting services constitutes the Client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No revisions or additions to the terms and conditions set forth in a Client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Services" shall mean all work to be performed for the Client, including the furnish of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodology(s) which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA-WaterBoard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods, and/or the Commission of water and wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples furnished or the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis in conformity with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided hereto, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for such services. Client's acceptance of a work order and its original releases PCL from any liability or claims of the invoiced amount for the services noted/outstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel perform the sampling, the Client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or orally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the work are confidential, owned by Client or its owner to whom it belongs and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or to the public domain or otherwise Client to give PCL an express written or otherwise in writing of the Client) subject to the following exceptions: PCL may disclose Client's name in lists of clients, (c) PCL may use Client's data and their not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of Client data when: (a) it complies with PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and (b) agrees those shall be no third party beneficiaries of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, computer or other trade secrets.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents (collectively "Indemnified Parties") harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs (collectively "Losses") and arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, or relating to, any breach of this agreement by Client or any of its employees, agents or subcontractors, or any act or omission of Client or any of its employees, agents or subcontractors in connection with the performance of services by PCL hereunder. This agreement and Client's indemnification obligation shall survive the termination of this agreement. Client's indemnification obligation shall not apply to any of the foregoing to the extent such Losses are caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically exclude consequential damages (whether of every kind and character) arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether such negligence or the performance of services is by this agreement. The foregoing indemnification will be in addition to any liability which the Indemnified Person may have to Client and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent that any other applicable law, client agrees hereby indemnify obligation will be supported by evidence of liability or potential liability to be furnished to Client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amount permitted under such applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to Client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business opportunity, loss of use, expenses or other loss including without limitation attorney's fees, expert fees, and the costs of any suit) suffered by Client or any third party arising against or relating to any indemnified person's performance under this agreement or services, whether under this agreement even if Client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by Client, client will provide PCL with certain samples, including for analysis, such as asbestos, pollutants, hazardous substances, or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as by federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated, as interpreted by any judicial or administrative interpretation of such any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous Materials received by PCL from Client or at Client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample collected in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Prices for PCL's services are as stated in PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of acceptance of the order. Any services not included in such schedule shall be charged at PCL's then current rates. In connection with PCL's performance of services hereunder, the terms of payment of PCL's fees are net [illegible] days from date of invoice. Late payments may be subject to a finance charge of [illegible] per month or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less, and all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Client shall pay all taxes (other than taxes based on PCL's net income) imposed on or by reason of the services provided hereunder. Client will not withhold payment for any invoiced amount because of any dispute with respect to any other invoiced amount. Client shall pay all invoiced amounts in full without any deduction or offset. Client shall pay interest on all overdue amounts at the rate of [illegible] per month (or the maximum rate permitted by law, if less) from the date payment is due until paid in full. If Client fails to make any payment when due, PCL may suspend performance of services until all past due amounts have been paid in full. Client shall reimburse PCL for all costs incurred in collecting any late payments, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes or modifications or amendments to the terms of this agreement shall not be valid unless they are in writing and signed by an authorized representative of PCL and the client or authorized representative. Client's subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability to client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished to PCL. Client is hereby solely responsible for its own actions, and not as agent or representative of PCL, and has no representation or capacity to any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on, and PCL's information or reports is hereby expressly waived by, and agrees that no data, information, and reports are intended for use or reliance in connection with a claim or the purchase, sale, underwriting, securitization of any obligation, investment, or other transaction or the pricing of any security, the creation, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other person or the modification or amendment of any security or investment, any governmental authority or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analysis are not available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal rate will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for testing samples that are excluded because it includes but is not limited to weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed by the client before being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 15 days or less, samples must arrive within 48 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times. PCL does not provide a rush surcharge. All short holding times (7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Analysis to be performed within half same day receipt) is available at a surcharge of [illegible] per sample. Client's courier, delivery, freight company, delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are subject to the expiration date of the preservation and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least [illegible] days after analysis has been completed. Longer storage for certain periods upon request only. For prolonged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed at the end of the [illegible] storage time.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of Sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following Client all Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No oral or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or subcontractors to the client, either out of or in connection with the services to be provided hereon, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sensitive materials provided by client or at client's request and the reports obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered) It is an event in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information is provided solely for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way resulting incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of person 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence (or alleged negligence) of any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement, even if client or the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, pathogenated organisms, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, waste and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials") client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations or the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the Client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or dispute.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is retaining services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or conducting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered the same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

"Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample material provided by Client or at Client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or Client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and Client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (plus litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages arising of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for interest, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and (ex ple or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by Client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law and by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (such as 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" stands for this current and Conditions of Sale including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consisting of sampling profiles and tests or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which incorporates the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written Letter of Intent (LOI) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or subsequent sampling services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No verbal or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including procedures, equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession where applicable. PCL will use only the methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Environmental Laboratory Accreditation Program (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) or the examination of water and wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from such methodologies in order to use alternate data to the extent that in the reasonable judgment of PCL, deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or representatives to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided hereunder shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of the work under and or payment releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services rendered regarding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and of information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of client's initial order and all subsequent orders after additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or all correspondence and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or unless filed by PCL for all services rendered or in connection with the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL's reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and no 3rd party shall rely on, or hold PCL liable for, any decision made or action taken by any 3rd party based upon any report, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software or procedures of PCL unless.

10. Hold Harmless

Client indemnifies and shall save harmless, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies (collectively, "PCL Indemnitees") from and against any and all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, losses and reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees and litigation expenses) and costs arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way accruing or resulting in whole or in part, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or subsequent orders, including disposal of client's hazardous materials. In more general terms of personal injury, loss of data or loss or use of property or loss of business or profits or any other damages of any kind or nature whatsoever, whether direct, indirect or consequential, which are in any manner connected with, or attributable to, the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnity will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnitees hereunder. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by adequate liability insurance coverage in an amount sufficient, which minimally shall be in the minimum amounts prescribed under applicable law. Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will include, without limitation, all costs of defending against any such claims, demands or actions and all damages including without limitation, cost of goods or services, loss of profits or business, loss of use of facilities, expert witness fees, attorneys' fees, court costs, and the cost to PCL for all services rendered or in connection with the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL's reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and no 3rd party shall rely on, or hold PCL liable for, any decision made or action taken by any 3rd party based upon any report, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software or procedures of PCL unless.

11. Hazardous Substances

In order to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples which are known or suspected to contain hazardous substances. Client represents and warrants that all samples submitted to PCL from client or on client's behalf shall not be hazardous materials, unless prior authorization is granted by PCL. Client agrees that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify or preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain hazardous materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a handling fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's existing price schedule in effect at the time of the execution of this agreement. PCL reserves the right to change its prices at any time upon 30 days' written notice. Payment is due in advance of services rendered. Payment shall be made by check, money order or credit card. Client may establish credit with PCL by completing a credit application and submitting it to PCL for approval. Once approved, client may make payments on account. Failure to pay an undisputed invoice on account due to no fault of PCL within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by law or applicable law, any amount owing to PCL by client which remains unpaid for more than thirty (30) days from date of invoice, unless disputed in good faith by client, shall bear interest at the rate of 1.5% per month (18% per annum) or the highest rate permitted by law, whichever is less, from the date payment is due until paid in full. Client shall pay all costs, including attorneys' fees and collection agency fees, incurred by PCL in connection with any collection efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms of this agreement will be effective only when they are executed by authorized representatives of PCL and client. Subsequent orders for additional services will not require a written agreement.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall perform services for the benefit of Client only. Client is not a beneficiary to this agreement, and there is no third party beneficiary or beneficiaries to this agreement. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that any reports, information and reports are for exclusive use of Client and may not be used, in whole or in part, or as part of the use of any law, ordinance, or governmental agency, or any other person or entity, for any purpose whatsoever without the express written consent of PCL. Client agrees to indemnify and hold harmless PCL against any and all claims, damages, losses, and expenses, including attorneys' fees and costs, arising out of or resulting from any such use, reuse, or modification.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analysis will be done by mutual prior arrange as it must be scheduled accordingly. If for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are missed because of samples that are improperly received or after date or procedure instruction notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be followed prior to any sample being received by PCL. Any of holding times can be changed at the Client's request. All analyses with holding times of 15 days or less - samples must arrive at laboratory within 48 hours of collection. All short holding times (i.e. 7 days or less) must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration of those short holding times. Unless otherwise noted, all samples will be held for 45 days after analysis is complete. Samples received with insufficient holding times will be analyzed as soon as possible, however, PCL cannot guarantee that these samples will meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least forty (40) days after which time they are disposed of unless prior arrangements are made for longer periods of time upon request only. Any storage of long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed of in the most cost effective and ecologically responsible manner.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up charges have been included on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays causing the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature of compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided hereon, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data unless such standard was exercised. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client shall and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and resultant expenses including, but not limited to all costs fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of users and defendants arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the like or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, hazwaste or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof) (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operation on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is acquiring services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or in part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 14 days or less' samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any addendum or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined hereinafter) only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) or the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform its obligations pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Client and the sample materials provided hereunder or at Client's request and the results and information PCL has. In the event confidence further such information is generally available to the public or is in the public domain or Client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement hereunder, or is otherwise required by law or legal process, PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data. Client acknowledges that the PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and its agent. Unless there shall be no third party beneficiaries to reports, data and information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technique or method, software, programs or other processes.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the "Litigation Expenses") and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, settling of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples necessary for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of order. Unless during the services were rendered or such prices were later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or upon delivery may be required for all new clients. Payment is due within [illegible] days from date of invoice. Invoices not paid within [illegible] days from date of invoice shall bear interest at the rate of [illegible] per month. Client shall pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by PCL in connection with the collection of all sums due from client. In the event that any payment is not received by PCL when due, PCL may, at its option, suspend performance of all services for client until all sums due PCL are paid in full. Client shall pay all taxes (other than taxes based on PCL's net income) relating to the services provided by PCL hereunder. Unless otherwise agreed to by PCL, all amounts are payable in U.S. dollars. Client shall pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by PCL in connection with the collection of all sums due from client. In the event that any payment is not received by PCL when due, PCL may, at its option, suspend performance of all services for client until all sums due PCL are paid in full. Client shall pay all taxes (other than taxes based on PCL's net income) relating to the services provided by PCL hereunder. Unless otherwise agreed to by PCL, all amounts are payable in U.S. dollars. To avoid penalty, the [illegible] must be received by PCL by the [illegible] day following the date of invoice

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any addendums or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assignees and representatives. "Price Schedule" means the Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined hereinbelow) under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modification to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody form to PCL. Any both of the above-listed is an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and / or agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the Client's express agreement to be governed by these terms and conditions. No verbal or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the services and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (CLWP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the sample or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and our proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder, subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any provision contained herein. In the process, PCL may use the name and location of client's site for charting or own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data, unless such disclosure is caused by PCL's reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees it will not be to third party beneficiaries of any reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any proprietary or confidential information which is software programs or other information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and proceedings (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and litigation expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way relating to client's activity, project, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or pursuant from handling or disposal of any hazardous materials, including, without limitation, (a) loss of or damage to property and/or (b) personal injury or death of any person. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, liabilities, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall not apply to any claims, damages, and/or losses arising out of every kind and nature for arising out of or in connection with the negligence or the result of conduct by any unidentified person, who enter, or allegedly to the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnification will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by client's liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which coverage shall be maintained in full force and effect during the term of this agreement and PCL be named as a co-insured under such policy. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, punitive or exemplary damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption), whether based on breach of contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability or otherwise, even if PCL has been advised of the possibility of such damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption). Litigation Expenses" as used herein shall mean all costs, expenses, attorney's fees, court costs, and the prejudgment interest, in connection therewith, including all appellate costs incurred by PCL or any other party in enforcing client's agreement to indemnify PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive all information for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), or any other hazardous substances, materials, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, regulations or ordinances or any other governing or regulatory authority or promulgated by any judicial or administrative proceedings, or any of the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous materials received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that, upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all remaining portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of client samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for analysis for that any client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of execution of the Work the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time with out notice. Payment in advance or where analysis is commenced is required for all new clients or upon the establishment of credit limits. Clients who have been established with PCL for a minimum of 6 months and have an open account, the terms for payment of invoices are net 30 days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by law and applicable law, any amount unpaid on the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the rate of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in addition to any amount paid with such collection procedure or effort.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by the duly authorized representative. Except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or by facsimile.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender, or the participation in or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less (samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 3-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to allow what the following dates can be met. Short Holding Times of 24 hours or less (pursuant to 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Samples stored for longer periods by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed of at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or solicitation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), LA Watershed (LWP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client may be required to disclose such information pursuant to law or legal process). PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software (programs) or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, cost of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities are in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have on PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption). Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from, directly at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. . Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit are built up with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at 30 and 61 thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collections processes or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services, and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule, as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (or deliveries of goods) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modification to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiating consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (CLAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature of compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out of pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or the public domain or client has filed lawsuit PCL for an intentional misconduct or deliberate or breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standards of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was followed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and not for anyone else. Those shall bring third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information or know how technical information, software programs or other intellectual

10. Hold Harmless

Client agrees and shall at all times indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent corporations and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees and litigation expenses, paid or awarded or sustained by client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way resulting, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to the agreement and/or the transportation, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. if any, greater in scope or amount or 2. use of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. the existence of injury to a person. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to client's claims, demands, actions of every kind and character, brought against PCL or its employees by any of client's employees, agents, or subcontractors arising out of or in connection with or as a result of services provided by PCL, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which client may have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation expenses, attorneys fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest) or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified persons in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client where it will possible that PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as pesticides, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies, regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for analysis for Hazardous Client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of application or the date the services were rendered or work order signed and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance is required unless credit application has been completed and approved for all new clients or each delivery of payment with credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of invoices are NET OA or within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by law, any amount unpaid by the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and the client. Authorized representative. Except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used in whole or in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, securitization of any securities, any pension, or other recipient to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification as or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short holding times of 48 hours or less (Ozone) is to be met must be delivered that same day or prior to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto, which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who has request laboratory services, including or excluding services and his, her, its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule or such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written Work Authority (WO) to PCL. Any such order constitutes Client's acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and Client's agreement to be bound by these Terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express consent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No oral terms or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of this contract unless PCL shall expressly agree to the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including preparation of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (CLRP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL's Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or the EPA/DOC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided hereto, shall not exceed the greatest amount for such services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder, subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Client and the sample owner (if not client) or its client's consent and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is publicly available, or available or in the public domain or client has filed a duly PCL for all services rendered or in connection in breach of the agreement), subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL employs the same standard of care to user, retain, and disclose its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of or use of data within such standard unless proved. PCL reports and information generated shall be the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that shall be no publication by client of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose, copy, modify, sell, or otherwise transfer any PCL information, software or proprietary information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client agrees to, and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way resulting from or arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant hereto, regardless of any negligence of PCL, its employees, agents, or subcontractors, except to the extent that such liability, loss, damage, cost, expense or claim is caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, client agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless PCL against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and expenses of any kind and character brought by or on behalf of client or any third party, including but not limited to attorneys' fees and costs, arising out of, or in connection with, the negligence or willful misconduct of client, its employees, agents, or subcontractors in the performance of services covered by this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any remedy which PCL may have at law, in equity and by statute or otherwise. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that in no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, consequential expenses or losses) resulting from any breach of this agreement or any negligent act or omission, including PCL's own negligence, whether or not PCL has been advised of the possibility of such damages by client or any third party. In any event, PCL's liability to client or any third party for any claim, loss or damage arising out of or relating to this agreement or services provided under this agreement shall not exceed the price paid by client.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the tests as requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, acid/chemical chemicals, bacteria or any other biological or toxic materials, wastes and substances which are deemed, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws. Using PCL personnel, equipment or other than existing or new client specific or project approved or any vehicle or transportation of any kind of any of the foregoing. Client represents and warrants that any such materials provided to PCL shall remain the property of client and client's employees of PCL's services, and will dispose of all unused portions of samples as instructed by client or by PCL's DHSC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain hazardous materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for asbestos bulk analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our DHSC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's published price schedule in effect at the time of acceptance of the order for the services and/or delivery of the goods ordered and then confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment shall be due in full unless otherwise agreed to in writing by PCL. An account shall be opened only upon receipt of required additional credit information and approval thereof by PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH WITHIN THIRTY (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law, PCL's obligations hereunder are subject to cancellation by PCL at any time and for any reason upon written notice to client. Client shall pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, incurred by PCL or its agents. Past due balances are subject to interest at the rate of 1.5% per month (18% per annum) or the highest rate permitted by law, whichever is less. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by PCL, payment is due at the time of delivery of the goods or services. If payment is not received by PCL within thirty (30) days from the date of the invoice, PCL may, at its option, charge a late payment fee of 1.5% per month on the outstanding balance. All payments must be made in U.S. dollars. Client shall pay all taxes, duties and fees (exclusive of taxes based on PCL's net income) that may be assessed or levied in connection with the performance of services or the sale of goods hereunder. Client shall pay all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) incurred by PCL in collecting any amounts not paid when due hereunder. In the event any proceeding is brought to collect any amounts due hereunder or to enforce any terms of this agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with such proceeding, including on appeal.

13. Agreement Modification

No change, modification or amendment to the terms shall be effective or binding and enforceable against PCL or any of its officers or employees unless agreed upon in writing by PCL. Any subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for reports, data or information provided by PCL. Client is retaining services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or on any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not to be relied on by client or provided, sold, conveyed or disclosed to any third party as a result of the conclusions, data, understanding or distribution of any portion, any analysis or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, investment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or compliance with changes in statute, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any of a variety of reasons, the turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL shall not be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because all samples that are received or analyzed after such holding times have expired. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be followed prior to any samples to be received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 24 hours or less, samples must be on site within 6 hours of time PCL is made aware of the project unless otherwise arranged with a rush surcharge. All tests having holding times of 72 hours, samples must arrive at the site within 24 hours of time PCL is made aware of the project unless otherwise arranged with a rush surcharge. Any holding time not listed on client holding, PCL will follow the most conservative holding times as listed in the current Standard Operating Procedures (SOP). Some holding times, especially those listed by regulatory agencies, are subject to interpretation and may affect the validity of short holding times. All holding times are calculated as of the time and date of the fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for 30 days after the last date analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is available only if arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed of at the end of the 30 days storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been waived on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allowed for each pick up location. Unreasonably long waiting time will be charged, costs be assessed on a portion for

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who has request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not conform the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written Letter of Authority (LOA) to PCL. Any such order constitutes Client's acceptance of PCL's offer to do business with the Client under the terms and conditions and / or agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the Client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the Terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the industry. Where applicable, PCL will use accepted methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Department (LEAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and our proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder, subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent that Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client to PCL Client's request and the reports released by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public domain or otherwise filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same due diligence in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential information whilst samples are in transit. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and shall not be relied upon by any third party for any purpose without the express written consent of PCL. Client will not disclose to any third party without prior consent in writing, testing results, software programs or other information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and to the extent arising, incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, including transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, toxic, noxious or dangerous substances, loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property or injury to or the death of any kind of that kind. This indemnity shall not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, suits, fines of every kind and nature, including out of court settlement with the regulatory agency involved, against any indemnified person, whether such action is alleged in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which Client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons, to the extent not inconsistent with applicable law. These agreements shall be interpreted as will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by Client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to Client for any (i) special, punitive, consequential or compensatory damages including without limitation, loss of profits or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees (including without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre-or post-judgment interest), or any other payments to or claims against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or services provided under this agreement even if Client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis not to asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, Battery or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated by any political or governmental subdivision or instrumentality of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from Client or at Client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current Sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Charges for all work PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of execution of the Work. The services were rendered or such other period and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment is due upon receipt of invoice, unless otherwise agreed to by PCL in writing. Client shall make all payments required hereunder in accordance with PCL's then-current credit policies. Client shall pay all charges on its credit account, the terms for payment of which are net 30 days after the date of the invoice

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, activities, programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to attorneys fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of use of, or loss of value in property and or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses in other than (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials") client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect for the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or such prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET EIGHT within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or by fax.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as an agent or broker, or on any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any portfolio or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less (samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who/which engages laboratory services, including or samples, services and includes its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such documents may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined below) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall govern if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express consent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No additional or additional terms and conditions examined in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession where applicable. PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), 24 Watershield (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided hereon, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain, or client has given PCL for all services rendered or in otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs, or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases, and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all claims, losses or damages, liens, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to attorneys fees, litigation expenses and court costs arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way resulting directly or indirectly from, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or from client's negligence, liability or omission of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or use of real or personal property and 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnification does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of this contract by any Indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent not expressly under applicable law, client agrees that all indemnity obligations will be supported by adequate liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law, or in any event shall not be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profits, business interruption, litigation expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or in any manner provided under this agreement even if client or the laboratory have

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, explosives or any other hazardous or toxic material, waste and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at clients request shall increase the property of client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for asbestos analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of performance or, in the case the services were rendered, or price quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all clients. Clients with a history of payment problems and/or credit issues have been suspended with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted, if at any by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable court and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective or modifications are made by an officer of PCL and by client in writing (email acceptable), except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or services furnished by PCL. Client is ordering services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or under any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, advice, report or research. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that test data, information and reports are not intended, or shall not be used or relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or administration any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the turn around time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are received on weekends or after hours without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. For analyses with holding times of 24 hours or less, samples must arrive within 36 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All other holding times, 3-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met upon receipt. Times of all hours or less shortened is hours must be delivered Monday-Friday 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM, excluding holidays and must. Other times, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed of at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time for travel allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which have agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule, as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes Client acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and PCL an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created by such acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), US Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized authoritarians. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for securing PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the samples materials provided by client to PCL shall be kept confidential unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or otherwise lost to you. PCL or all services rendered or otherwise in breach of the agreement, subject to any provision required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of your data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided therein are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL's agreement shall be for third party beneficiary of such reports. Data in its reports or client will not disclose to any third party any proprietary, technical information, software programs or other confidentialities.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents harmless from any and all claims, demands, damages, costs, liabilities, losses, expenses, including, but not limited to, court costs, reasonable attorneys' and experts' fees of any kind or nature whatsoever (collectively "Claims") asserted by any third party as a result of, relating to, or arising out of or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and the transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. This release shall apply to all Claims for personal injury or death of persons or damage to property of persons of any kind or nature. This indemnity shall not apply to any of the foregoing losses, liabilities, damages or attorneys' fees directly to the extent they were willfully misconduct of PCL or its employees). Further, the indemnity shall specifically apply to Claims, damages, actions of every kind and nature, brought against PCL in connection with the negligence of its agents, employees or any authorized person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability of client to PCL and/or any other claims or rights of PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by adequate liability insurance coverage to be maintained by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, consequential or incidental damages including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, however caused or under any theory of liability, including without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, costs of pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will inform us and PCL will receive samples, materials or wastes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, Bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic materials, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations. Whether now existing or hereafter amended or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"), Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous Material received by PCL from, or on behalf of, client's property shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or such prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or such assurance of payment as PCL deems required may be a condition of PCL's performance. Unless credit has been established with PCL or Client's client with an established credit account, the terms of payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through an attorney or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an authorized and by client's authorized representative. Except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is acquiring services from PCL for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for another person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to mislead upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other source of the classification or categorizing with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 24 hours or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Coliform) 6 hours must be delivered at same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these terms and conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, including in sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or collection of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in this profession. Where applicable, PCL will use established methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater, and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel perform the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition when the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain) or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement), subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data unless such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Clients shall not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client (indemnitor) shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, actual damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way directly incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client characterized materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, use of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Environmental fines of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing costs, claims, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or of breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any subsidy which the others might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent not held under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available Liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and for pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement) even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, petrochlorinated hydrocarbons, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's EH&SC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our EH&SC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law or applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure in addition.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to these terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is using services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any private or other placement of securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or instrumentality.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush services are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without incurring such surcharge. For short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria) or 6 hours must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been outlined on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any addendum or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL)'s standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound to these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (LUFT), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided therein are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other administrations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or in connection with handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, process of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, suits, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual as alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as: asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or also other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (weather now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), EA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information or even mention its final data results, software programs or other intellectual.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, illness or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by suitable liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and for pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or as services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyl, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which is are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when cash is or contracted is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. For short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), LA Water Board (LAAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. "Deviations," if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own such data for data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and any court expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or monies caused solely by the sole negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous Material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when client is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms that be effective on in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initial invoice/ consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No conflicting or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was exercised. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL the want to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnification shall not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the event's negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to seven claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of and in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and not pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). The following report contains the results for the one aqueous sample received on September 27, 2019. This sample was analyzed for 2,3,7,8-TCDD by EPA 1613B. Routine turn-around time was provided for this work.

Continuing Calibration Verification (CCV) Requirements
All associated calibration verification standard(s) (CCV) met the acceptance criteria.

This work was authorized under Pat-Chem Laboratories' Project # 19I0510.

The report consists of a Cover Letter, Sample Inventory (Section I), Data Summary (Section II), Sample Tracking (Section VI), and Qualifiers/Abbreviations (Section VII). Raw Data (Section III), Continuing Calibration (Section IV), and Initial Calibration (Section V) are available in a full report (.pdf format) upon request.

If you have any questions regarding this report, please feel free to contact me at (916)932-5011.

EPA 549.2:
Diquat strongly adsorbs to soil particles that are suspended in water. The strong chemical bonds make the herbicide chemically inactive. When bound with soil particles, the extraction procedure for method EPA 549.2 is ineffective at isolating the bound diquat. Any reported diquat represents the dissolved analyte in the water that has not been bound to the soil particles.

EPA 548:
The endothall recovery for the matrix spike (MS) was outside of acceptance limits. The recovery was within acceptance limits in the laboratory control sample/laboratory control sample duplicate (LCS/LCSD) indicating that the low recovery may be due to matrix effects.

Laboratory Report

Introduction: This report package contains total of 7 pages divided into 3 sections:

Case Narrative	(2 pages)	: An overview of the work performed at FGL.
Sample Results	(2 pages)	: Results for each sample submitted.
Quality Control	(3 pages)	: Supporting Quality Control (QC) results.

Case Narrative

This Case Narrative pertains to the following samples:

Sample Description	Date Sampled	Date Received	FGL Lab ID #	Matrix
19I0510-01 MCC Quarterly EFF	09/23/2019	09/26/2019	SP 1912936-001	W

Sampling and Receipt Information: All samples were received in acceptable condition and within temperature requirements, unless noted on the Condition Upon Receipt (CUR) form. All samples arrived on ice. All samples were prepared and analyzed within the method specified hold time. All samples were checked for pH if acid or base preservation is required (except for VOAs). For details of sample receipt information, please see the attached Chain of Custody and Condition Upon Receipt Form.

Quality Control: All samples were prepared and analyzed according to the following tables:

ND=Non-Detected. PQL=Practical Quantitation Limit. * PQL adjusted for dilution.

MDA = Minimum Detectable Activity (Calculated at the 95% confidence level) = Data utilized by DHS to determine matrix interference.
MCL / AL = Maximum Contamination Level / Action Level. Alpha's Action Level of 5 pCi/L is based on the Assigned Value (AV).
AV = Assigned Value(Gross Alpha Result + (0.84 x Error)). CCR Section 64442: Drinking Water Compliance Note: Do the following
If Gross Alpha's (AV) exceeds 5 pCi/L run Uranium. If Gross Alpha's (AV) minus Uranium exceeds 5 pCi/L run Radium 226.

Drinking Water Compliance:
Gross Alpha (AV) minus Uranium is less than or equal to 15 pCi/L
Uranium is less than or equal to 20 pCi/L
Radium 226 + Radium 228 is less than or equal to 5 pCi/L

Note: Samples are held for 3-6 months prior to disposal.

Definition

CCV	: Continuing Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
CCB	: Continuing Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
Blank	: Method Blank - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not contributing contamination to the samples.
LCS	: Laboratory Control Standard/Sample - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
MS	: Matrix Spikes - A random sample is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSD	: Matrix Spike Duplicate of MS/MSD pair - A random sample duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
Dup	: Duplicate Sample - A random sample with each batch is prepared and analyzed in duplicate. The relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
MSRPD	: MS/MSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The MS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
ND	: Non-detect - Result was below the DQO listed for the analyte.
DQO	: Data Quality Objective - This is the criteria against which the quality control data is compared.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments thereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or updated from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following Standard Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a fabricate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the Terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (LLAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examinations of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from some methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the stipulated amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel perform the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the safety and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or in connection with the results delivered by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered. Any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be required to be or unauthorized disclosure of such data. All data and standard work product PCL reports and information generated thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall not to third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any software or computer mining technology information, software or processing of the information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and investigations (governmental or otherwise), including, but not limited to, all court fees, fines, litigation expenses and attorneys' fees and expenses arising in favor of Client or any third party to a contract, and/or in any way resulting from or arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL and each of their agents, employees, representatives, handling of the sample or other chemicals or materials. Client agrees that in the event of breach of warranty, breach of contract or tort by PCL, or its employees, Client's exclusive remedy shall be limited to the re-performance of the services by PCL or its employees. Except as otherwise provided, PCL shall not be responsible for any acts or omissions of any contractor, agent or employee of Client, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing shall be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by adequate liability insurance coverage to be furnished by Client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, even if PCL has been advised of the possibility of such damages. Client shall not be entitled to recover from PCL any amounts in excess of the amounts paid by client to PCL under this agreement.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples that may be analytes such as chemicals, environmental pollutants, hazardous or toxic substances, or chemicals, materials, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, regulations, ordinances, permits now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated by any judicial or administrative agency or body (collectively "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client shall remain property of client and remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the Client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations or at the time the services were rendered or was previously quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or under a form of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET 30 DAYS unless stated otherwise in writing. To the fullest extent permitted by law, all fees are due and payable, per amount subject to the original invoice, 30 days or subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, or deletions or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL does have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for his own account, is not an agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any person, or other securities or the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Nitrate) must be delivered the same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule, as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (and other items) only upon the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and is an agreement by the client to these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiating consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use sound methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), U.S. Waterboard (USAF), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site, and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern over performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such data or results is otherwise available to the public or is the prior property of client but PCL has to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or court process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of client's data which such standard was followed. PCL reports and information provided shall be for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of PCL's reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information, testing, technical information, software, procedures or other techniques.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and does hold harmless, defend and indemnify PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, contractors and their successors from and against any and all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, losses, deficiencies, liabilities, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) and expert witness fees) resulting from, relating to or arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, certified or any way arising incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transporting, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials. In no event shall any liability or claim of personal injury, property damage or any other loss, damage or expense of any kind or character to any person or property be asserted against PCL based upon or arising out of any contamination or pollution of the environment which may occur in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnification will not be applicable to any liability caused by the sole negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall not apply to any claims against, or liability of, PCL and the other indemnified persons, to the extent prohibited under applicable law. The foregoing indemnity shall not apply to any liability caused by the sole negligence or willful misconduct of any of the foregoing indemnified persons. In no event shall PCL be liable to client (whether such liability is based on contract, tort, negligence, strict liability or otherwise) for any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) or related expenses in connection therewith, without limitation, attorney's fees), even if client has given prior notice of the possibility of such damages or expenses or such damages or expenses were foreseeable. Client shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless PCL from and against any and all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, losses, deficiencies, liabilities, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) asserted against or incurred by PCL by reason of or resulting from the negligent or willful acts or omissions of client and its employees, agents, subcontractors and others acting on client's behalf in connection with or relating to this agreement or any services provided under this agreement, even if such acts or omissions are alleged to be the sole or partial responsibility of PCL, unless such claim against or liability for PCL or any indemnified person is connected with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement and if such is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples of materials for analysis which are suspected to contain hazardous, harmful or regulated substances, pollutants, wastes or by-products which are defined, determined or identified as such by federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client acknowledges and agrees that any Hazardous Material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any microbiological analysis shall not be checked a sample disposal fee, and sample substitution, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect on the date of acceptance of the order. Prices are subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or other security is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are 30 ("Credit") days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law, all or any portion of an unpaid balance not disputed in good faith by client shall be subject to interest at the rate of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are obtained through legal proceedings (e.g. by an attorney), the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or assists from or incurred with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an authorized officer of PCL. Additional requirements and/or subsequent orders for additional services may be required in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is retaining services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or party. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not intended, or shall not be used to solicitations, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or registration of securities, any periodic or other reporting to the Securities and Exchange Commission, the obtaining, amendment, renewal or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the qualification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or instrumentality.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are expired because of samples that are received on weekends or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 14 days or less (except nitrate and nitrite) 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (7 days, nitrates must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short holding Times of 48 hours or less (nitrates in 6 hours) must be delivered on the same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed of at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been outlined on the fee schedule. Reasonable Note has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of Sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments thereto which are accepted by writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (or quoting services) only subject to the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL for laboratory/consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed collectively a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean any work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the US Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (CLAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) or the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from those methodologies as necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the sample or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or subcontractors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of the service under and/or payment releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services not corresponding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except in the event the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or on client's behalf and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is given or available to the public or is in the public domain or client has filed a gag PCL for actual damages in connection with breach of the agreement subject to any deliberate rights covered by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data which such standard was observed. PCL reports and confidential information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and Client agrees that it shall not to third party transferees of the reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any written agreement governing technical and/or financial Software and any other Information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, consultants and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) whatsoever, arising out of or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or the manufacturing, handling or disposal of client's products, materials, [illegible] Breach of all of pursuant 7 [illegible] of Damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, and [illegible] from or out of every kind of character. This indemnity shall apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused in whole by the acts, negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. However, this indemnity shall not apply to any such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses caused by the sole negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall apply to any and all actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, losses and liabilities arising out of client's breach of its representations and warranties set forth in this agreement, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and costs, whether or not suit is instituted. Client shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless PCL from and against any and all claims, demands, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and costs, whether or not suit is instituted, arising out of or in connection with client's failure to comply with any applicable law, rule or regulation. Client agrees that its liability indemnity, and/or reimbursement as provided herein shall be in addition to any insurance proceeds paid to the indemnified party or its agents by virtue of any insurance policy or policies, and shall be due and payable hereunder regardless of whether or not such insurance proceeds are sufficient to cover the indemnified party's loss or damage and regardless of whether or not such insurance policy or policies shall have been determined to be applicable to any such loss or damage. Client expressly understands and agrees that any insurance policy(ies) that may be purchased by PCL naming Client as a co-insured under PCL's policy(ies) of insurance shall not in any way limit the liability of Client to PCL. Client expressly understands and agrees that Client is required to name PCL as an additional insured under Client's insurance policies. Client further understands and agrees that Client's purchase of such insurance does not relieve Client of any responsibility or obligation under this agreement.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses, such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws. Client represents to PCL that client has disclosed to PCL the nature of the samples and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples, which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any soil bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of acceptance of the order for the services and according to the terms stated on the face of the invoice or in writing. The price schedule will apply to all orders and services unless otherwise stated. Payment terms are net 30 days unless otherwise agreed to in writing by PCL. Unless stated otherwise, terms include reasonable packaging and shipping charges. Any applicable taxes, duties or other governmental charges shall be paid by customer but any amount subject to this provision shall not be subject to interest. In the event of late payment, client agrees to pay interest at the rate of [illegible] per month or the highest rate permitted by law, whichever is less. Client agrees to pay all costs of collection through legal proceedings or arbitration, or otherwise, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Client shall pay all taxes associated with or arising out of the services provided by PCL, including sales, use, excise, value added, gross receipts, and similar taxes, but excluding taxes based on the net income of PCL. Client shall pay all charges for services, expenses and costs incurred by PCL on behalf of client in any third party, as a result of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or manufacturing, handling or disposal of client's products, materials, [illegible] Breach of all of pursuant 7 [illegible] of Damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, and [illegible] from or out of every kind of character. This indemnity shall apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused in whole by the acts, negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. However, this indemnity shall not apply to any such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses caused by the sole negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall apply to any and all actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, losses and liabilities arising out of client's breach of its representations and warranties set forth in this agreement, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and costs, whether or not suit is instituted. Client shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless PCL from and against any and all claims, demands, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and costs, whether or not suit is instituted, arising out of or in connection with client's failure to comply with any applicable law, rule or regulation. Client agrees that its liability indemnity, and/or reimbursement as provided herein shall be in addition to any insurance proceeds paid to the indemnified party or its agents by virtue of any insurance policy or policies, and shall be due and payable hereunder regardless of whether or not such insurance proceeds are sufficient to cover the indemnified party's loss or damage and regardless of whether or not such insurance policy or policies shall have been determined to be applicable to any such loss or damage. Client expressly understands and agrees that any insurance policy(ies) that may be purchased by PCL naming Client as a co-insured under PCL's policy(ies) of insurance shall not in any way limit the liability of Client to PCL. Client expressly understands and agrees that Client is required to name PCL as an additional insured under Client's insurance policies. Client further understands and agrees that Client's purchase of such insurance does not relieve Client of any responsibility or obligation under this agreement.

13. Agreement Modification

[illegible] This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties. No supplement, modification, or amendment of this agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by both parties. No waiver of any of the provisions of this agreement shall be deemed, or shall constitute, a waiver of any other provision, whether or not similar, nor shall any waiver constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver shall be binding unless executed in writing by the party making the waiver. Subsequent orders for additional services may be accepted by PCL by verbal agreement.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for the [illegible] of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished to the Client in providing services hereunder for the client account. It is not as agent or principal, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no person or entity other than client shall have any right to rely on such data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that such data, information and reports will not be relied upon or used by client or any third party in connection with or as part of any joint venture, underwriting, solicitation, [illegible] offering, or prospectus, or the preparation of any similar document, or for the purpose of any litigation, or the solicitation of or entering into any contract, or the solicitation of or conveying any interest in real property, or for the extension of credit from any financial institution or other person, or the solicitation of or conveying any interest in the solicitation of or conveying any interest in, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or other days on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and method modifications should be reviewed in order to be compared being performed by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 15 days or less (samples must arrive within 96 hours from sampling) must meet holding times. [illegible] allowing a minimum of 24 hours for client sampling. All short holding times (i.e. 72 hours) must be delivered [illegible] and 24 hours in order to [illegible] holding times are met. After hours, site pickup for short holding times [illegible] and are subject to additional surcharges for capacity to meet holding times. No holding times are [illegible] of the public information and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for an [illegible] days after analysis has been completed. Samples kept for longer periods may require storage. Samples being held for long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed of at the end of a predetermined time [illegible]

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

Where sample pick up has been initiated on the first collection, the same technician will be utilized for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed as additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additional or amended terms to which we may, and to which we may not, agree. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and/or its parents, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule, as such document may be amended or replaced from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services on delivery terms only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may place services by submitting a written Chain of Custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes Client's acceptance of PCL's offer to do business with the Client under the Terms and conditions and Client's agreement to be bound by these Terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms or conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the Terms and conditions.

For purposes of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial compliance with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), Tri Watch Manual (TWAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM), or the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's assignment of a work order and/or original receipt PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel perform the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for sampling. PCL of the tasks and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out of pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform its services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and other information provided by client at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or otherwise lawful to use) for an exclusive recipient of information's breach of this agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized interception of such information while such data is in transit. Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and PCL agrees that it will not disclose such reports or information to any third party without the prior written consent of Client. Client will not disclose to any third party any information, pricing, technical information, software, or strategies of PCL unless there is consent.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL (its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies) from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, except to the extent resulting or caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character, arising out of and in connection with the negligence of an agent of Contract, by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnification shall be in addition to any rights which the client may have at law, PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent required by law, client agrees that it will maintain adequate insurance coverage to be maintained pursuant, which insurance shall name the indemnified persons under such agreement. In the event of an PCL be called to testify in any civil, criminal, or administrative action proceeding, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation expenses, at their own discretion, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or post-judgment collection, in any other instance in cases by client or any other party, or any litigation against or involving PCL or any other third person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement, and if, and to the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples necessary for analyses such as subject to, pyrophoric materials, explosives, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic materials, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, regulations or ordinances (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any official or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule (which is subject to change at any time without notice). Payment will be made in advance of any service or upon receipt of invoice unless credit has been established with PCL. All invoices are due and payable upon receipt. No terms or payment of charges are NET 30 days unless by the specific written agreement of PCL. In the event payment is not received within thirty (30) days of invoice, client shall pay a late charge of 1.5% per month on the unpaid balance. Unpaid accounts may be collected through legal collection or by an attorney. The client shall pay reasonable collection and attorney's fees, as well as court costs, incurred in connection with such collection and recovery efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if agreed to in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by one of authorized representatives of Client. PCL's subsequent orders for additional services shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the Terms or any part thereof unless expressly agreed to in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished to PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or principal for any other person. PCL is not aware of any other persons who will rely on the services hereunder, and client agrees that any data, information and reports are not intended for use by, and shall not be used by, any person, in connection with or as part of, the purpose of, or in underwriting, all or any portion of any transaction with any person or other business entity. Without limiting the foregoing, all information, reports, and any other services provided by PCL hereunder are for the exclusive use of client and its affiliates, and no other person or entity is entitled to rely thereon, and client agrees to indemnify, defend and hold PCL harmless from any claims, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) arising out of or in connection with any such use or reliance.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded between samples that are delivered or shipped on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday (or any weekdays without prior notification and acceptance). Standard holding times and other conditions should be reviewed in order to any sample receiving received by PCL. In cases of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 24 hours or less, samples must arrive within 24 hours of sampling. PCL cannot holding times cannot be met. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule and any additions or amendments hereto to which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), 40 Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature of compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a price order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out of pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or Client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of conduct by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or as allow by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or effort.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to these Terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries, No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is retaining services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon in connection with or a part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities. Any 10K or other reporting to holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 24 hours or less samples must arrive within 36 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, i.e. 72 hours, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments nevertheless are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or marketing services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (or deliverables) only under the following General Terms and conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall be agreed if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes (i) an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and (ii) an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of sampling services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder (subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to all disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not use reasonable care for unauthorized disclosure of such data, which such standard was observed. PCL reports are information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees that it shall not be a third party beneficiary of such reports. Client is not to disclose Client's name to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client (releasor) will hold save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates (collectively and each a "Indemnified Person") harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and reasonable expenses (including but not limited to attorneys fees (the Litigation Expenses") and costs of investigation) (collectively "Losses") of them or any third party as a result of, and or in any way relating incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, sickness or death of persons or 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of any kind or nature. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to client claims (and any actions of every kind and charge, by anyone at all) in connection with the negligence (other than of PCL and its Indemnified Persons), omission, failure or alleged error in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which may exist or be asserted by law, or PCL and the other rules binding persons. To the extent necessary with applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption (Litigation Expenses in other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the cost of time (whether or not employees), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples (samples) for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria, toxins or other hazardous toxic materials, wastes and substances which are defined, determined to identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any these of the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for analytical bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of execution of the date the services were rendered or such prices mutually agreed upon/stated in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time at PCL's sole discretion. Payment is due upon receipt of invoice. If payment is received by PCL after thirty (30) days from the date of invoice, client shall pay a late charge of 1.5% per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are referred to collection agency or attorney for collection, client shall pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Client shall pay all taxes, duties and assessments (except taxes based on PCL's net income) imposed in connection with the sale or the performance of services hereunder, and client will reimburse PCL for any such taxes, duties or assessments paid or payable by PCL. Client shall pay all invoices in full without any deduction or offset of any kind. In the event client fails to pay PCL within thirty (30) days of the invoice date, PCL may, at its option, suspend performance of services until client has paid all amounts due and has provided PCL with adequate assurance of client's ability to pay for future services. Client shall pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by PCL in connection with the collection of any delinquent amounts due to PCL for services performed or expenses incurred by PCL.

13. Agreement Modification

Client may request changes to or modifications to the Terms in writing. Any such changes or modifications will not be effective unless and until PCL has agreed to them in writing and a written change order is executed by both parties. PCL shall not be bound by any subsequent orders for additional services that may be issued by client.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries, No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is acquiring services from PCL for client's own account and not as agent for, or on behalf of, any other person or entity. Client acknowledges and agrees that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party (including, but not limited to, any purchaser of property owned by client) may rely on any information or reports furnished by PCL to client. Client agrees that all data, information, or reports furnished by PCL to client shall be used by client solely in connection with its own internal use, and that client will not sell, transfer, sublicense, or distribute any such data, information, or reports to any other party (including, but not limited to, any prospective purchaser of property owned by client) without PCL's prior written consent. Client shall not publish or otherwise disclose the results of any services performed by PCL hereunder to any third parties without PCL's prior written consent. Client shall not use any data, information, or reports furnished by PCL to client in any manner that is misleading or inconsistent with applicable law.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turn around time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered or received after business hours, on weekends, without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and shortened ones should be reviewed prior to any analysis being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client upon request. All analyses will have times of 24 hours or less. Samples must arrive within 36 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without incurring weekend surcharge. All short holding times (i.e. 7 days, or less) must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (example is 6 hour) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company, drivers or similar issues are subject to additional surcharges and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are effective as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after all work has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Per sample long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed at the end of the per arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been entered on the fee schedule. Reasonable fees have been established for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of Sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments to which we agree to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or his/her/s, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such documents may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms may not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written Note of Custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or its agent for consulting services constitutes Client's unconditional assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No additional or different terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of this contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA state (Cal-EPA/ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or other prior based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and its progress releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel perform the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extend the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the samples submitted by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence. Publication of such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement, subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses to protect its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information produced shall not be for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other technology.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases, will defend, save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to attorneys fees (the "Liabilities") asserted and/or actually arising in favor of client or any 3rd party as a result of, and/or in any way connected, incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, except to the extent such liability or damage is caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by client, its subcontractors, agents, whether active or passive, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities shall be in addition to any remedy which the client may have in law, and the other indemnities herein. To the extent permitted by law, client shall also defend any claim or suit brought against PCL by a third party for which client has agreed to indemnify PCL and the client agrees to pay all costs, damages and attorneys fees that may be awarded against PCL in connection with any such claim or suit. Client's indemnification obligations shall include, but not be limited to, all consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profits or business interruption, litigation expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the cost of appellate counsel), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any third party in any litigation, claims or involving PCL or any indemnified parties in connection with this agreement to the extent permitted under this agreement except client's fraud or willful misconduct.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive complete materials for analysis such as potential, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, referenced or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL agrees to regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any material, administration, interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client expressly accepts and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for waste bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations in the state the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or where analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment satisfactory to PCL is established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit history, the terms for payment of invoices are NET 30 from invoice date (30 days from date of invoice). To the fullest extent permitted by law and by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are to be sued through legal proceedings, or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorneys fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications, or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and the client subsequent agreements, excepting subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is retaining services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or party. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants and agrees that no data, information or reports are represented, or shall be used or relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or syndication of any securities, any exercise or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or communication with any of its officers, and governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any sampling received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 24 hours or less, samples must arrive within 36 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before exceptions to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short holding times of 48 hours or less (bacteria) 5 hours must be delivered the same day in order to meet short holding times are met. When issues like delivery, weight concerns delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick-up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, including or sampling services and his or her owners, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule or such documents as may be amended or issued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services as defined herein only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the Terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these Terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or authorized Consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions proposed in a client's document shall be deemed to constitute a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the Terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), EA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of work under this proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent or duplicative additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence. PCL shall not disclose such information to any person or entity other than the client, except as required by law or to any services rendered or in connection with the performance of services pursuant to the agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, PCL shall be entitled to disclose such information in connection with any dispute between PCL and the client regarding the services rendered or in connection with the enforcement of PCL's rights hereunder. Client understands that in the course of the agreement, PCL may engage subcontractors to assist in certain process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of samples where such disclosure was beyond PCL control. Any and all reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and no other person shall be or third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information regarding technologies, methods, software or processes of PCL from whatever source.

10. Hold Harmless

Client hereby will and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, and associated costs, including, but not limited to, all court fees, fines, litigation, settlement and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way relating, incidental or arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials, injury, damage or death of persons or loss of damage to property, any of it from whatever of every kind of character. The indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, to incurred caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees. Further, the indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of the client or client's agents, employees, subcontractors, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by insurance liability insurance coverage to be maintained by client, which insurance shall be in full force and effect and PCL on false business for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruptions, litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or expert witness judgment interest), or any other expenses to costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or services provided under this agreement except if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will disclose and PCL will receive samples materials for asbestos such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyl, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous materials received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis shall will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Unless otherwise agreed in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of application of the date the request is made in writing or with prior quotation and later confirmed in writing, the price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment is due in full upon completion of the services or receipt of an invoice, whichever occurs first. If payment arrangements have not been established with PCL for those accounts with an established credit account, the terms of payment of charges are NET 30 days from invoice date. Client agrees to pay all costs, to the fullest extent permitted by law, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs, incurred by PCL in its attempts to collect any amount owed to PCL hereunder. Client agrees to pay interest at the lesser of five percent (5%) per month or the highest amount of unpaid amounts to be collected through legal proceedings by an attorney. The client agrees to pay all costs and expenses of PCL's agents, including attorneys, engaged in collection efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by Client. Authorized representatives, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be given orally.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client, including, without limitation, its agents, employees, and not as agent or employee, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used or relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or syndication of any securities, any periodic or other reporting or requirement of any security, the issuing, guarantee, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender, or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analysis are available for an additional charge and are to be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush cannot be met, the normal time will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that were delivered or received or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to allow time for testing. Any analytes with short holding times of 24 hours or less (0.5 to 1 hours) must be delivered immediately to receive by qualified holding times are met. Circumstances like delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (or deliverables) hereof only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written (or oral) order to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the Client of PCL's offer to do business with the Client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the Client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a Client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession where applicable, PCL will use accepted methodologies, which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are subjected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, processes or other intellectual.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees (for litigation, arbitration and appeals) arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way relating, incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Economic loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence (or breach of contract) by any Indemnified Person, whether active or passive, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary or as applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by liability insurance coverage to be furnished by Client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to Client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption (taxation expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party or any legal claim against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples customarily for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacteriological analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Quotes/bids per PCL in accordance with PCL's agreed to price schedule in effect at the time of submission on the date the services were rendered or within prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET EIGHT within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or by the applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of month (EOM) date is subject to interest at the rate of the maximum rate permitted by law in one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 4pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 72 hours, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short holding times of 48 hours or less (nitrate is a 48 hour) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. Short hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding time are in effect as of the publication date of our fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is on request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed of at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noticed on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed as additional fee.

CASE NARRATIVE

The sample was received and extracted past the holding time as per client request.

EPA 549.2:
Diquat strongly adsorbs to soil particles that are suspended in water. The strong chemical bonds make the herbicide chemically inactive. When bound with soil particles, the extraction procedure for method EPA 549.2 is ineffective at isolating the bound diquat. Any reported diquat represents the dissolved analyte in the water that has not been bound to the soil particles.

Endothall:
The recovery for the matrix spike (MS) was below the lower acceptance limit. The recovery was within acceptance limits in the laboratory control sample/laboratory control sample duplicate (LCS/LCSD) indicating that the low recovery may be due to matrix effects.

The following report contains the results for the one aqueous sample received on November 4, 2019. This sample was analyzed for 2,3,7,8-TCDD by EPA 1613B. Routine turn-around time was provided for this work.

Continuing Calibration Verification (CCV) Requirements
All associated calibration verification standard(s) (CCV) met the acceptance criteria.

This work was authorized under Pat-Chem Laboratories' Project # 19J0518.

The report consists of a Cover Letter, Sample Inventory (Section I), Data Summary (Section II), Sample Tracking (Section VI), and Qualifiers/Abbreviations (Section VII). Raw Data (Section III), Continuing Calibration (Section IV), and Initial Calibration (Section V) are available in a full report (.pdf format) upon request.

If you have any questions regarding this report, please feel free to contact me at (916)932-5011.

Sincerely,

James M. Hedin

Laboratory Report

Introduction: This report package contains total of 7 pages divided into 3 sections:

Case Narrative	(2 pages)	: An overview of the work performed at FGL.
Sample Results	(2 pages)	: Results for each sample submitted.
Quality Control	(3 pages)	: Supporting Quality Control (QC) results.

Case Narrative

This Case Narrative pertains to the following samples:

Sample Description	Date Sampled	Date Received	FGL Lab ID #	Matrix
19J0518--01 MCC Quarterly EFF	10/24/2019	10/28/2019	SP 1914642-001	WW

Sampling and Receipt Information: All samples were received in acceptable condition and within temperature requirements, unless noted on the Condition Upon Receipt (CUR) form. All samples arrived on ice. All samples were prepared and analyzed within the method specified hold time. All samples were checked for pH if acid or base preservation is required (except for VOAs). For details of sample receipt information, please see the attached Chain of Custody and Condition Upon Receipt Form.

Quality Control: All samples were prepared and analyzed according to the following tables:

ND=Non-Detected. PQL=Practical Quantitation Limit. * PQL adjusted for dilution.

MDA = Minimum Detectable Activity (Calculated at the 95% confidence level) = Data utilized by DHS to determine matrix interference.
MCL / AL = Maximum Contamination Level / Action Level. Alpha's Action Level of 5 pCi/L is based on the Assigned Value (AV).
AV = Assigned Value(Gross Alpha Result + (0.84 x Error)). CCR Section 64442: Drinking Water Compliance Note: Do the following
If Gross Alpha's (AV) exceeds 5 pCi/L run Uranium. If Gross Alpha's (AV) minus Uranium exceeds 5 pCi/L run Radium 226.

Drinking Water Compliance:
Gross Alpha (AV) minus Uranium is less than or equal to 15 pCi/L
Uranium is less than or equal to 20 pCi/L
Radium 226 + Radium 228 is less than or equal to 5 pCi/L

Note: Samples are held for 3-6 months prior to disposal.

Definition

ICV	: Initial Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
ICB	: Initial Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
CCV	: Continuing Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
CCB	: Continuing Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
Blank	: Method Blank - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not contributing contamination to the samples.
LCS	: Laboratory Control Standard/Sample - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
MS	: Matrix Spikes - A random sample is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSD	: Matrix Spike Duplicate of MS/MSD pair - A random sample duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSRPD	: MS/MSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The MS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
ND	: Non-detect - Result was below the DQO listed for the analyte.
DQO	: Data Quality Objective - This is the criteria against which the quality control data is compared.

Explanation

360	: ICV above Acceptance Range (AR). Samples which were non detect for this analyte were accepted.

Definition

CCV	: Continuing Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
CCB	: Continuing Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
Blank	: Method Blank - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not contributing contamination to the samples.
RgBlk	: Method Reagent Blank - Prepared to correct for any reagent contributions to sample result.
LCS	: Laboratory Control Standard/Sample - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
LRS	: Laboratory Recovery Standard - Prepared to establish the batch recovery factor used in result calculations.
MS	: Matrix Spikes - A random sample is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSD	: Matrix Spike Duplicate of MS/MSD pair - A random sample duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
BS	: Blank Spikes - A blank is spiked with a known amount of analyte. It is prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.

Quality Control - Radio

Definition
BSD	: Blank Spike Duplicate of BS/BSD pair - A blank duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyte. It is prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
MSRPD	: MS/MSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The MS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
BSRPD	: BS/BSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The BS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
ND	: Non-detect - Result was below the DQO listed for the analyte.
DQO	: Data Quality Objective - This is the criteria against which the quality control data is compared.
Explanation
435	: Sample matrix may be affecting this analyte. Data was accepted based on the LCS or CCV recovery.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the Terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any processor required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other know-how.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, litigation expenses and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of damage to, use of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind whatsoever. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, costs, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the fullest extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by insurance liability or surety coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest) or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any third party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or on services provided under this agreement even if a fault is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples/materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) and or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for acid extractable analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of client's submission or the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or before analysis is completed is required for all new clients or upon a history of payment and/or overdue account. Once established with PCL, PCL shall provide clients with an established credit account. The terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law and applicable law, any amount unpaid as the date of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative. Except than subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting or filing required of the securities, the resulting, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 24 hours or less, samples to be 48 hours must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for a period thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be returned at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noticed as one fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or its client's customer and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is in the public domain or Client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data unless such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, fees, litigation expenses and awards, arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, and or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by Client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses in other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), to any other person or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analyses, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted of at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard service schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "Services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and signed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information containing technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and assets arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL the want for this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregone losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and / or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party, in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples/ materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, Bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all services or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or will not be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (ascorbic acid, 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Walmbrard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or as all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective on in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the unpaid amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent) harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to attorney fees (the Litigation Expenses) and amounts arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, destruction or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with the price schedule in effect at the time the services were rendered or later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of all charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid after the expiration of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the rate of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney fees/agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client (authorized representative, except for subsequent orders for additional services made verbally or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or clients a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL)'s standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the Terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) or the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the stipulated amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for condition in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not, due to any third party disclosure, use any testing technique, information, software, principles or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the litigation expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, and/or unpossessed use of property and or 3. Breach of local, state or federal laws. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to liens, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent not clearly under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable by client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement even if such is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples/materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, lead-based or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, regulations or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or its client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's authorized price schedule in effect at the time of operations and/or date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance for any analysis is required for all new clients or clients with a history of payment problems or accounts that have not established with PCL. For clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH (most thirty (30) days from date of invoice). To the fullest extent permitted by law, all bills for services/fees, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, PCL shall be entitled to recover its costs and attorney's fees, whether incurred with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third parties may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to all contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, i.e. 7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (excess of 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who/that requests laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or supplemented from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes: 1. an acceptance by the Client of PCL's offer to do business with the Client under the Terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "Services" shall mean all work to be performed for the Client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the safety and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are matched in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and /or sample analysis provided by client or at client's request and the results prepared by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public and/or the public domain or client has first to pay PCL for all services rendered. It is often in the interest of the parties hereto to keep information concerned with their respective businesses confidential. Each party hereto agrees that it will not disclose the terms and conditions of this agreement to any third party (other than its attorneys, accountants, auditors, bankers, financial advisors and other agents and representatives who need to know such information and who agree to keep such information confidential) and will not disclose any of the other party's confidential information to any third party (other than its attorneys, accountants, auditors, bankers, financial advisors and other agents and representatives who need to know such information and who agree to keep such information confidential), except: (a) as may be necessary in connection with the enforcement of this agreement or rights under this agreement; (b) to the extent necessary to comply with applicable law or the valid order of a governmental agency, provided that the disclosing party provides prior written notice thereof to the non-disclosing party, and reasonably cooperates with the non-disclosing party's efforts to obtain confidential treatment or a protective order; (c) to the extent necessary in connection with the exercise of any remedy hereunder; (d) to the extent such information is publicly available other than by reason of a breach of this agreement; or (e) to the extent such information is independently developed by the disclosing party. Each party agrees that its agents, employees and representatives who have access to the other party's confidential information shall be informed of the confidential nature of such information and shall be instructed to keep such information confidential in accordance with this agreement. Each party shall be responsible for any breach of this agreement by its agents, employees and representatives. Upon the termination of this agreement, each party shall promptly return to the other party all copies, notes or other material in its possession or control containing confidential information of the other party or certify in writing that all such copies, notes or other material have been destroyed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, PCL and its affiliates may use Client's name and the fact that Client has engaged PCL to perform the services described herein in connection with PCL's performance of services to other clients and in connection with PCL's boilerplate client lists, but PCL and its affiliates may not otherwise disclose Client's name or the fact that Client has engaged PCL to perform the services described herein without Client's prior written consent.

10. Hold Harmless

Client, engages and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, causes, demands, actions, costs and expenses including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, litigation expenses, and court costs arising in favor of Client or any third parties as a result of, and/or in any way relating to: (a) PCL's breach of any of its representations or the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement; (b) improper handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials; (c) injury, illness or death of persons; (d) loss of damage to property and/or; (e) any loss of business or profits by Client or any of their subs. This indemnity shall not apply to any claim, loss, damage, cause, demand, action, cost or expense arising solely from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall not apply to any claim, loss, damage, cause, demand, action, cost or expense arising out of any failure by Client to comply with any of its obligations under this agreement or the negligence of an independent contractor or other third party, except to the extent that PCL is alleged to be responsible for the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to and not in lieu of any other indemnities set forth in this agreement or other agreements between the parties hereto, which shall remain in full force and effect. Client agrees that its indemnity obligations set forth herein will be fully assumable by its successors and assigns in the event that Client undergoes a change of control, whether by merger, consolidation, sale of stock or assets, initial public offering, or any other business transaction (including without limitation, loss of status as business organization, operation of law or any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or liquidation proceeding instituted by or against Client, and for purposes of this agreement, a transfer or assignment to one or more of Client's affiliates, subsidiaries or parent companies, whether by operation of law or otherwise, shall not be deemed to result in a change of control).

11. Hazardous Substances

Report to perform the analysis specified by client. Client will advise and PCL will receive samples exhibits for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) or any other hazardous or toxic material, unless such exhibits are specifically designated or identified as such. Unless federal, state or local laws require PCL perform or transport samples that are toxic or hazardous, and upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or to PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for aseptic bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's published price schedule in effect at the time of agreement. Unless otherwise stated, services are billed with quotation and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment is due in full upon completion of services unless other terms are established in advance. If payment is not received by PCL within thirty (30) days of invoice, Client shall pay PCL a late charge of 1.5% per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid accounts are referred to an agency or attorney for collection, the client shall pay all collection costs and attorney's fees, including fees for in-house counsel, in addition to all other amounts due. Client is subject to interest at the rate of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance, if unpaid accounts are referred to an agency or attorney for collection, the client shall pay all collection costs and attorney's fees, including fees for in-house counsel, in addition to all other amounts due.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an authorized representative of PCL and the Client. Any waiver by either party of any breach of the Terms shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of the same or similar nature.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries, No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability to any person or entity other than Client. Information or reports furnished by PCL to Client hereunder are confidential and for Client's exclusive use. Neither Client nor PCL shall use the name of the other party or any of its employees in any boilerplate, boilerplate, boilerplate,

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additional or amendments hereto that are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and who is its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL client sales will accept no terms for services or deliver hereunder other than the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written order (or verbally to PCL any such order shall be 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or Client's continuing services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract in the absence of acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the Client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use reports of methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), EA Waterbrend (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or disposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel perform the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the conditions in which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL in the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent that Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform its services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or on client's behalf and the results obtained by PCL that are not in the public domain or are not otherwise known to PCL or available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process, PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and Client agrees that it shall not in any way furnish any of such reports, data or information to any third party without the prior written consent of PCL. Client will not disclose any such data or information or use any technical information, software, processes or other trade secrets.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliate companies and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to attorneys fees (the "Indemnified Expenses"), and interest arising in favor of any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement or the transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. I more, because of client's breach of contract, tort, or otherwise, whether a claim is alleged or the services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the fullest extent by applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by adequate liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. To the extent client's PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation costs and expenses including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the cost of pre-judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party. In any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified persons in connection with this agreement or as to any matter covered under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples and/or client's industries such as colleges, educational institutions, laboratories or any other hazardous or toxic materials, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) for any physical or environmental injury or harm of any form of the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous Materials received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples or samples held by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of performance of the services unless otherwise agreed in writing by PCL and client confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment terms are net 30 days unless a different payment term is agreed to in writing by PCL. Client shall pay a late charge of 1.5% per month (or the highest rate permitted by law, any amount unpaid 30 days after the invoice date. Client is subject to interest at the rate of 1.5% per month or the highest rate permitted by law, any amount not paid by PCL per invoice on the invoice balance. If collection efforts are initiated through legal proceedings, client shall pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and other expenses incurred by PCL in connection therewith.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, or solicitations or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if executed by authorized representatives of both parties. Any subsequent orders for additional services may be placed verbally or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client's testing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. The parties acknowledge that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not intended, or to be relied upon, in connection with the sale, underwriting, or purchase of securities, any private offering memorandum, or the issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of any loans from any financial institution or in connection with the certification to or contracting with any federal, or state, or any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are expired because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays, without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and method guidelines should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 16 days or less (samples must arrive [illegible] days before expiration) will require [illegible] holding times. A rush charge applies for rush turnaround. All short holding times (72 hrs, settle, [illegible]) require that the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short holding times of 24 hours or less (such as [illegible]) hours must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for a period of sixty (60) days after analysis has been completed. Longer storage for longer periods is by request only. Prepaid and long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be disposed of at the end of the prepaid storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided therein are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the Client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (weather now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted [if at all] by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate (permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the pitch, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, of 7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the prices (Pricing), and any additional or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined hereinafter) under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initial field consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the ... normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and/or sample materials provided by client or to client's customer and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or by the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential where such standard was observed. All reports are information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL's reports thereof shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning PCL's proprietary information, software programs or other know-how.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and parents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and reasonable expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys fees and litigation expenses, and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and to the extent arising, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, or use of, or loss of use of property or 3. financial loss of money or of profits. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the client's negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to claims, client damages, settlement, every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees (including without limitation, attorney's fees, expert costs and/or pre-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party, in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, regulations or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's Price Schedule in effect at the time of execution of the Terms (the "Price Schedule") and/or subsequent orders and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment is due at the time services are rendered or invoiced for all services unless prior credit arrangements have been established or until a history of prompt payment and credit acceptance has been established with PCL. For those clients with established credit accounts, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any amount subject to any dispute shall not be due and payable and shall not be subject to interest at the rate of the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances if unpaid accounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees and/or collection agency fees or other charges.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and the client authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries/No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, required or used to resell upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of securities, the servicing, administration, renewal or coverage of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the syndication to or contract with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded by acts of samplers that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times are met. Short holding times of 48 hours or less (success is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day (in order to guarantee holding times are met). After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (weather now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from dated of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms must be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall not be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 36 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Subject: 2019 Annual Long-Term Groundwater and Surface Water Monitoring Report, Malibu Civic Center Wastewater Treatment Facility – City of Malibu, California

Dear Ms. Bundy:

Rincon Consultants, Inc. has prepared the 2019 Annual Long-Term Groundwater and Surface Water Monitoring Report for the Malibu Civic Center Wastewater Treatment Facility (CCWTF) located in Malibu, California. The CCWTF began discharging treated wastewater in the third quarter of 2018. Therefore, Long-Term Monitoring of Groundwater and Surface Water Quality Monitoring (Task II) was triggered and quarterly groundwater monitoring was initiated.

The objective of the work program is to implement and manage a basin-wide groundwater and surface water monitoring and reporting program. The monitoring program has been designed to identify potential impacts due to land disposal of treated wastewater via injection and landscape irrigation or percolation on the receiving water quality of the local groundwater aquifers, Santa Monica Bay, Malibu Creek, and Malibu Lagoon.

Please contact us with any questions you may have regarding the results of this Report.

Sincerely,
Rincon Consultants, Inc.

1 Introduction

This report presents the results of the 2019 reporting period for the Malibu Civic Center Wastewater Treatment Facility (CCWTF) located in Malibu, California (Figure 1). The objective of the work program is to implement and manage a basin-wide groundwater and surface water monitoring and reporting program. The monitoring program has been designed to identify potential impacts because of land disposal of treated wastewater via injection and landscape irrigation or percolation on the receiving water quality of the local groundwater aquifers, Santa Monica Bay, Malibu Creek, and Malibu Lagoon.

This report was prepared by Rincon Consultants, Inc. (Rincon) and presents the geologic and hydrogeologic setting, groundwater elevations and gradient, surface water and groundwater sampling methodologies, and water quality data results.

2 Background

On-site wastewater disposal systems (OWDS) have allegedly contributed to the non-point source pollution of Malibu Creek and Lagoon located in the Civic Center Area of the City of Malibu (Figure 2). The City of Malibu has designed and constructed a new wastewater treatment facility to comply with regulatory actions taken by the Los Angeles Regional Water Quality Control Board (LARWQCB) and the State Water Resources Control Board (SWRCB) to prohibit discharges from OWDS in the Civic Center area.

To establish baseline groundwater and surface water quality conditions prior to operation and discharge of treated wastewater, the LARWQCB required basin-wide, baseline groundwater and surface water monitoring. The water quality monitoring program was driven by several factors:

- Timelines established through regulatory action
- Proposed programs to fulfill anticipated future regulatory requirements associated with the development of the CCWTF
- The distribution of Title 22 Recycled Water in the Prohibition area
- Protection of the Malibu Valley Groundwater Basin, Malibu Creek, Malibu Lagoon, and the near shore environment of Santa Monica Bay

Following activation of the CCWTF operations, baseline monitoring activities (Task I) were completed and long-term monitoring activities (Task II) were triggered. The objective of long-term monitoring is to identify impacts that land disposal of recycled water, via injection and landscape irrigation or percolation, may have on the water quality of the receiving groundwater aquifers, Santa Monica Bay, Malibu Creek, and Malibu Lagoon.

The basin-wide long-term monitoring program consists of four of the original five water quality monitoring tasks that occur in the Civic Center area of the City of Malibu. All five monitoring tasks were designed to provide a comprehensive basin-wide groundwater and surface water monitoring program. Below is a general description of each task.

Task I – Baseline Groundwater and Surface Water Quality Monitoring of the Civic Center Area (Completed)

The baseline groundwater and surface water quality monitoring task involved monitoring groundwater in nine (9) shallow and deep groundwater wells and monitoring surface water quality at ten (10) locations. The objective of this task was to develop baseline, ambient shallow and deep groundwater, and surface water conditions prior to the implementation of the CCWTF, as required by the Monitoring and Reporting Program (MRP) No. CI 10042, issued by the LARWQCB (LARWQCB 2015).

Task II – Long-Term Monitoring of Groundwater and Surface Water Quality Monitoring of the Civic Center Area

The long-term groundwater and surface water quality monitoring task involves monitoring groundwater in nine (9) shallow and deep groundwater wells and monitoring surface water quality at ten (10) locations. The objective of long-term monitoring is to identify impacts, if any, that land disposal of recycled water, via injection and landscape irrigation or percolation, have on the water quality of the receiving groundwater aquifers, Santa Monica Bay, Malibu Creek, and Malibu Lagoon and to comply with the project-specific Waste Discharge Requirement (WDR). The mix of shallow and deeper monitoring wells were chosen to provide adequate spatial and vertical coverage of the basin near the CCWTF injection to monitor for potential adverse impacts. The nine (9) groundwater monitoring wells and ten (10) surface water sampling locations identified in Task II are sampled on a quarterly basis after CCWTF operations commence. This sampling is required by the MRP No. CI 10042, issued by the LARWQCB (LARWQCB 2015).

Task III – Salt and Nutrient Management Plan Monitoring Program

The Salt and Nutrient Management Plan (SNMP) monitoring program branches from the baseline and long-term groundwater and surface water monitoring programs described above (Tasks I and II). Task III involves performing semi-annual groundwater monitoring at sixteen (16) groundwater monitoring wells (mix of shallow and deep) located in the Civic Center area of the City and in a small area in unincorporated Los Angeles County. The objective of the SNMP is to monitor potential impacts that recycled water, introduced through irrigation and injection, may have on the Malibu Groundwater Basin. The SNMP also provides data to assess the various phases of the CCWTF implementation during the time that the collection system and treatment plant connections increase, and as OWDS-related discharges cease (RMC Water 2015a).

Task IV – Memorandum of Understanding Compliance Monitoring

Compliance with the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) the City has with the LARWQCB corresponds with baseline and long-term groundwater and surface water monitoring programs described in Tasks I through III above. Task IV involves performing semi-annual monitoring at fourteen (14) groundwater wells located in the City's Civic Center area. The objective of the MOU is to monitor for potential impacts to the Shallow Alluvium because of CCTWF implementation (LARWQCB 2014).

Task V – Civic Center Groundwater Elevation Monitoring Program

The groundwater elevation monitoring program assesses the groundwater elevations in the Malibu Groundwater Basin and in Winter Canyon. The objective of this task is to provide an understanding of the groundwater elevation conditions in the Civic Center Area, including elevation trends related to precipitation, tidal, and lagoon influences (LARWQCB 2015).

3 Geologic and Hydrogeologic Setting

3.1 Hydrology

The project is in the Los Angeles hydrologic region, as defined by the LARWQCB. The Los Angeles hydrologic region encompasses all coastal drainages flowing to the Pacific Ocean between Rincon Point and the eastern Los Angeles County line. The study area covers the Malibu Creek and Winter Canyon Creek watersheds. Most of the study area addressed in this report is located within the 109–square-mile Malibu Creek watershed, which is the second largest watershed draining to the Santa Monica Bay. The Malibu Creek watershed contains mostly undeveloped mountain areas, residential properties, and natural streams (LARWQCB 2011). Malibu Lagoon, a 13-acre brackish estuary, is located at the terminus of the Malibu Creek watershed and is one of only two remaining coastal marshes in Los Angeles County.

3.2 Geology

The study area is located within the Santa Monica Mountains in the northwestern corner of the Los Angeles basin. The study area lies at the juncture of the Peninsular Ranges geomorphic province, consisting of a northwest-oriented structural grain, and the Transverse Ranges geomorphic province, which features a predominantly east-west-oriented structural grain.

The 45-mile-long Santa Monica Mountains range is part of the southernmost portion of the western Transverse Ranges province. It forms an east-west range of low mountains along the southern California Coast from the Oxnard Plain to Los Angeles. The Santa Monica Mountain range is characterized by long, south-draining canyons on its south flank and short, north-draining canyons on its north flank. The Malibu Canyon and Winter Canyon are two canyons in the study area that drain south.

3.3 Hydrogeology

The Malibu Valley Groundwater Basin (DWR groundwater basin no. 4-22) is a 613-acre alluvial basin. The groundwater basin is bounded by the Pacific Ocean to the south and the Santa Monica Mountains to the north, east, and west. The basin is composed of non-water-bearing Tertiary age rocks.

Water bearing geologic formations in the Malibu Valley Groundwater Basin include Holocene alluvium, consisting of clays, silts, sands, and gravels overlying impermeable bedrock. The unconsolidated alluvium in the Civic Center area by Malibu Creek and other small drainages is estimated to range in thickness from a thin layer near the valley walls to about 175 feet in the central part of the main body of the alluvium.

The alluvium can be subdivided into three categories or zones: 1) a shallow zone of permeable alluvial sediments, 2) underlain by a sequence of fine-grained estuarine deposits, and 3) an underlying coarse-grained stratum commonly referred to as the "Civic Center Gravels" (GeoSoils 1989, Leighton 1994, ECI 200, Ambrose and Orme 2000, Fugro West, Inc. 2005, Geosyntec Consultants 2007). Depth to groundwater in the alluvium is typically 5 to 13 feet below grade and is deeper in the upland canyon areas.

4 Activities Completed During 2019

The following activities were completed during the 2019 reporting period:

- Rincon prepared the Fourth Quarter 2018, Annual 2018, First Quarter 2019, Second Quarter 2019, and Third Quarter 2019 Groundwater and Surface Water Monitoring Reports for City submittal to the LARWQCB
- Rincon collected and analyzed groundwater and surface water samples for WDR/MRP compliance (Task II) during each quarter of 2019
- Rincon collected and analyzed groundwater samples for SNMP (Task III) and MOU (Task IV) compliance during the second and third quarters of 2019
- Rincon measured depth to water in the groundwater monitoring wells monthly throughout the 2019 reporting period (Task V)

5 Groundwater Elevations and Gradients

Rincon mobilized to 46 groundwater monitoring wells on a monthly basis to measure the depth to water using an electronic water level indicator throughout the 2019 reporting period (Table 1 and Appendix A). Of the 46 groundwater monitoring wells, two of the wells were unable to be located (MBCMW-5 and MBCMW-6), one well was reported to be buried (GH9-M4), and one was reported dry (SMBRP-15B). Of the 43 groundwater monitoring wells that were measured, seven of the wells do not have elevation data for the top of well casing and one well was dry during 2019 (SMBRP-15B). Therefore, groundwater elevations could not be calculated in these eight groundwater wells.

5.1 Shallow Zone

Groundwater elevations ranged from 1.34 feet above mean sea level (amsl) in CCPE to 24.25 feet amsl in SMBRP-8 (ECI-RC-MW01) (Table 1). Groundwater elevations decreased a maximum of 2.26 feet amsl in MBCMW-7 and increased a maximum of 2.06 feet amsl in CCPE from January to December 2019.

Groundwater monitoring wells in close proximity to Malibu Lagoon and Creek (C-1, C-2, CCPNE, CCPE, CCPSW, P-4, P-9, MCWP-MW10, SMBRP-2, and SMBRP-6) mostly recorded the largest groundwater elevation fluctuations; seasonal variability (precipitation) and Malibu Creek and Lagoon upstream hydrological contributions appear to strongly influence these shallow groundwater wells. Groundwater elevations increased in all of these groundwater monitoring wells between January and December 2019, with the exception of C-2, CCPNE, and P-9.

In the vicinity of the Civic Center Way and Stuart Ranch Road, groundwater elevations increased in MBCMW-8, MCWP-MW04S, and SMBRP-10C and decreased in MBCMW-7 and SMBRP-16. Further south towards the coastline, groundwater elevations increased in SMBRP-12 and MCWP-MW08 and decreased in MCWP-MW07S and SMBRP-13.

An annual average groundwater gradient of 0.0047 feet/foot was calculated using monthly groundwater gradients derived from groundwater monitoring wells SMBRP-2, SMBRP-9, and SMBRP-12. The predominant direction of groundwater flow was south-southeast. Elevation data and flow direction are shown on Figures 3a through 3l.

5.2 Deep Zone

Groundwater elevations ranged from 4.50 feet amsl in MCWP-MW07D to 11.39 feet amsl in MCWP-MW09 (Table 1). Groundwater elevations increased in all deep groundwater monitoring wells when comparing groundwater elevations between January and December, with the exception of MCWP-MW02 which decreased 0.84 feet. In the remaining seven wells, groundwater elevations increased a maximum of 1.06 feet amsl in MCWP-MW07 and increased a minimum of 0.41 feet amsl in MCWP-MW01 and MCWP-MW05 from January to December 2019.

5.3 Winter Canyon

The groundwater elevations for the Winter Canyon groundwater monitoring locations ranged from 9.65 feet amsl at SMBRP-11 to 58.65 feet amsl in LAMW-5S between January and December 2019 (Table 1). Both monitoring locations showed a decrease in groundwater elevations over the 2019 reporting period. The groundwater elevations at SMBRP-11 and LAMW-5S decreased by 1.08 and 1.23 feet, respectively.

6 Water Quality Sampling Analysis

The surface water and groundwater samples collected during 2019 were transported under chain-of-custody documentation to Enthalpy Analytical (Enthalpy), located in Orange, California. All surface water and groundwater monitoring locations and corresponding laboratory analyses are shown in the Groundwater and Surface Water Analytical Matrix (Table 2). The analytical laboratory results for all samples collected in 2019 are shown in Tables 3 and 4. Laboratory reports are included as Appendix B of this report.

6.1 Surface Water

6.1.1 Sampling Methodology

A total of ten (10) surface water samples were collected during each quarterly surface water monitoring event. All surface water samples were collected up-current of the sampling person's body to minimize potential contamination of the surface water samples with bacteria originating from field personnel. Surface water samples were collected directly into lab-supplied containers when possible, or into a clean field sampling container and then transferred into preserved and non-preserved containers supplied by Enthalpy. The containers were capped, labeled, placed in Ziploc bags, and stored on ice in a cooler and delivered via courier to Enthalpy under chain-of-custody documentation.

Near Shore

During each monitoring event, four (4) ocean water samples were collected from the Near Shore area along Malibu Road (N-001 through N-004). Surface water samples were collected from each location at a depth of approximately 3-6 inches (ankle deep).

Malibu Lagoon and Creek

During each monitoring event, six (6) surface water samples were collected from the Malibu Lagoon and Creek (L-001 through L-006). Surface water samples were collected from each location at a depth of approximately twelve inches below the surface of the water.

6.1.2 Laboratory Analyses

Total Coliform

In the Near Shore surface water, total coliform concentrations ranged from 41 Most Probable Number per 100 milliliters (MPN/100 mL) at N-001 to above the laboratory upper detection limit of 2,400 MPN/100 mL in four (4) samples. The average total coliform concentration in the Near Shore surface water was 1,314 MPN/100 mL.

In the Malibu Lagoon and Creek surface water, total coliform concentrations exceeded the laboratory upper detection limit of 2,400 MPN/100 mL in each sample collected during 2019, with the exception of L-001 during the second quarter of 2019 (2,000 MPN/100 mL) and L-005 during the fourth quarter of 2019 (less than the reporting detection limit [reporting limit] of 1.0 MPN/100 mL).

Fecal Coliform

In the Near Shore surface water, fecal coliform concentrations ranged from less than the reporting limit of 1.0 MPN/100 mL in 10 samples to 32 MPN/100 mL at N-003. The average fecal coliform concentration in the Near Shore surface water was 4.7 MPN/100 mL[1].

In the Malibu Lagoon and Creek surface water, fecal coliform concentrations ranged from less than the reporting limit of 1.0 MPN/100 mL at L-005 to 1,300 MPN/100 mL at L-006. The average fecal coliform concentration in the Malibu Lagoon and Creek surface water was 238.6 MPN/100 mL.

Nitrogen

Nitrate as Nitrogen

In the Near Shore surface water, nitrate as nitrogen was not detected above the RDL in any of the samples collected during 2019.

[1] For this report, a value of half the reporting limit was used to calculate average concentrations for results below the reporting limit.

Other Forms of Nitrogen

All nitrite as nitrogen concentrations in surface water samples collected at the Near Shore and Malibu Lagoon and Creek sampling locations during 2019 were not detected above the reporting limit, which ranged from 0.1 to 5.0 mg/L.

In the Near Shore surface water, organic nitrogen concentrations in 2019 were only detected above the reporting limit, ranging from 0.040 to 0.5 mg/L, at N-004 (0.12 mg/L) sample in the first quarter of 2019 and N-001 (0.060 mg/L) and N-002 (0.120 mg/L) in the fourth quarter of 2019. In the Malibu Lagoon and Creek surface water, organic nitrogen concentrations ranged from less than the reporting limit of 0.040 mg/L at L-001 to 3.7 mg/L at L-006. An average concentration of 0.769 mg/L was calculated for all surface water samples collected from Malibu Lagoon and Creek.

Ammonia (NH_3^+) is the primary form of nitrogen in OWDS effluent, and it is converted to nitrate during the leaching process through the vadose zone (Figure 4). Ammonia (as nitrogen) in surface water samples was detected in six (6) samples in 2019. In the Near Shore surface water, ammonia (as nitrogen) was detected at N-001 and N-002 at concentrations of 0.098 mg/L and 0.038 mg/L, respectively. In the Malibu Lagoon and Creek surface water, ammonia (as nitrogen) was detected at L-001, L-004, L-005, and L-006 at concentrations ranging from 0.017 mg/L to 0.070 mg/L during the reporting period of 2019.

Total Kjeldahl Nitrogen (TKN) concentrations in the Near Shore surface water samples collected in 2019 were detected in four (4) samples, ranging from 0.054 mg/L at N-001 to 0.124 mg/L at N-002. Detected concentrations of TKN in the Malibu Lagoon and Creek sampling locations ranged from 0.066 mg/L at L-003 to 3.7 mg/L at L-006.

Total Phosphorous

Total phosphorus was detected in 14 of 16 surface water samples collected at the Near Shore sampling locations in 2019, ranging from 0.022 mg/L at N-004 to 0.866 mg/L at N-003. Total phosphorus was detected above the reporting limit in all the Malibu Lagoon and Creek sampling locations, ranging from 0.051 mg/L at L-005 to 0.631 mg/L at L-006.

6.2 Groundwater

6.2.1 Sampling Methodology

A total of sixteen (16) groundwater monitoring wells were sampled during the first and third quarter of 2019 (Task II, III, and IV). A total of nine (9) wells were sampled during each quarter of 2019 (Task II). Prior to sampling, a minimum of three casing volumes were purged from each well using a submersible pump or by hand bailing. Purging stopped when consecutive water quality measurements (temperature, electrical conductivity, and pH) varied by less than 10% or until the well purged dry, whichever occurred first. Field equipment was decontaminated between each well. Purged groundwater and decontamination water were stored in a 500-gallon high-density polyethylene tank during field activities, and properly disposed at the CCWTF.

Once each well was purged, groundwater samples were collected using preserved and non-preserved containers supplied by Enthalpy. The containers were capped, labeled, placed in Ziploc bags, and stored on ice in coolers pending delivery to Enthalpy. Field data are included in Appendix A.

6.2.2 Laboratory Analyses

Total Coliform

During the 2019 groundwater monitoring events, total coliform concentrations ranged from less than the reporting limit (1.0 MPN/100 mL) in two (2) samples to at or above the laboratory upper detection limit in eight (8) samples. Total coliform was also detected at a concentration of 4,000 MPN/100 mL at MCWP-MW10. The average total coliform concentration in the groundwater samples collected in 2019 was 756 MPN/100 mL[2].

Fecal Coliform

In groundwater samples collected during the 2019 reporting period, fecal coliform concentrations ranged from less than the reporting limit, ranging from 1.0 to 2.0 MPN/100 mL, in 24 of 46 samples to 2,000 MPN/100 mL in SMBRP-12. The average fecal coliform concentration in the groundwater samples collected in 2019 was 109.8 MPN/100 mL.

Nitrogen

Nitrate as Nitrogen

During the 2019 reporting period, nitrate as nitrogen in groundwater samples ranged from less than reporting limit of 0.012 mg/L in four (4) samples (three [3] wells) to 14.2 mg/L in LAMW-5S with an average concentration of 2.69 mg/L. LAMW-5S and SMBRP-9 had the highest detected nitrate as nitrogen concentrations throughout the reporting period.

Other forms of Nitrogen

Nitrite as nitrogen concentrations were only detected at SMBRP-11 (0.06 mg/L) during the second quarter of 2019.

Detected concentrations of organic nitrogen ranged from 0.050 mg/L in MCWP-MW09 to 34.6 mg/L in SMBRP-12, which is the highest concentration observed since monitoring activities began in the third quarter of 2015. The second highest concentration (3.60 mg/L) was observed at CCPE during the first quarter of 2017.

Ammonia (as nitrogen) concentrations were detected in 27 groundwater samples, ranging from 0.015 mg/L in MCWP-MW07S to 11.4 mg/L in SMBRP-12. Ammonia (as nitrogen) was detected in SMBRP-11, SMBRP-12, MCWP-MW07S, and MCWP-MW09 during each groundwater monitoring event.

TKN concentrations were detected in 43 of 46 groundwater samples, ranging 0.059 mg/L in LAMW-5S to 40 mg/L in SMBRP-12 with an average concentration of 2.35 mg/L.

[2] For this report, the upper detection limit was used calculate the average concentrations for results that exceeded the upper detection limit to.

Total Phosphorous

During the 2019 reporting period, total phosphorus concentrations were detected in each groundwater sample and ranged from 0.019 mg/L in SMBRP-9 to 3.88 mg/L in LAMW-5S with an average concentration of 0.57 mg/L.

Total Dissolved Solids

Total dissolved solids (TDS) concentrations in groundwater samples analyzed during the 2019 reporting period ranged from 78 mg/L in MCWP-MW07D to 6,150 mg/L in MBCMW-09 with an average concentration of 1,868 mg/L.

6.3 Analytical Laboratory QA/QC

Enthalpy performed quality assurance/quality control (QA/QC) measures including the recovery of surrogates. Enthalpy followed all QA/QC procedures per method requirements. The notes column of the analytical reports also has the QC flags. Any issues that are not covered by the qualifier flags (definitions page found below the analytical tables), are addressed as part of the case narrative. Any exceedances are indicated in the Case Narrative of the analytical laboratory report.

7 Scheduled Activities for 2020

The following activities will be completed during 2020:

- Conduct groundwater sampling activities at nine (9) groundwater monitoring wells and ten (10) surface water sampling locations on a quarterly basis (Task II).
- Collect and analyze groundwater for SNMP and MOU compliance (Tasks III and IV).
- Measure depth to water in the groundwater monitoring wells on a monthly basis (Task V).
- Rincon has prepared the Fourth Quarter 2019 Groundwater and Surface Water Monitoring Report and will prepare the First Quarter 2020 and Second Quarter 2020 Groundwater and Surface Water Monitoring Reports for City submittal to the LARWQCB.

8 Summary of Monitoring Activities

8.1 Groundwater Elevations

Consistent with past observations, shallow groundwater generally flows south-southeast. Groundwater elevations increased in 18 of 25 of shallow wells, with an average change of 0.93 feet. In the vicinity of the Civic Center Way and Stuart Ranch Road, groundwater elevations increased in MBCMW-8, MCWP-MW04S, and SMBRP-10C and decreased in MBCMW-7 and SMBRP-16. Further south towards the coastline, groundwater elevations increased in SMBRP-12 and MCWP-MW08 and decreased in MCWP-MW07S and SMBRP-13.

Groundwater elevations increased in all deep groundwater monitoring wells, with the exception of MCWP-MW02, when comparing groundwater elevations between January and December 2019.

At Winter Canyon, the groundwater elevations at LAMW-5S and SMBRP-11 decreased between January and December 2019.

8.2 Surface Water Quality

Total coliform concentrations in the Near Shore surface water samples steadily increased from the first to fourth quarters of 2019, where concentrations exceeded the laboratory upper detection limit of 2,400 MPN/100 mL at N-001, N-002, and N-003. Total coliform concentrations in the Malibu Lagoon and Creek sampling locations exceeded the laboratory upper detection limit of 2,400 MPN/100 mL in all but two surface water samples collected during 2019.

In the Near Shore surface water, fecal coliform was not detected at N-004 during 2019 and was only detected once at N-001. The detected concentrations observed at N-001, N-002, and N-003 ranged from 1.0 to 32 MPN/100 mL. At the Malibu Lagoon and Creek sampling locations, fecal coliform was detected in every surface water sample collected in 2019, with the exception of L-005 during the fourth quarter of 2019.

Low concentrations of the various forms of nitrogen were observed at the Near Shore and Malibu Lagoon and Creek surface water sampling locations.

Phosphorous was detected in all surface water sample locations and average concentrations decreased compared to concentrations observed in 2018.

8.3 Groundwater Quality

Total coliform concentrations in groundwater monitoring well samples exceeded the upper limit concentration of 2,400 MPN/100 mL in eight (8) samples. The average total coliform concentration in the groundwater samples collected in 2019 was 756 MPN/100 mL.

Detections of fecal coliform were detected during each quarter of 2019 and were reported in 22 groundwater samples, with the maximum concentration observed in SMBRP-12 (2,000 MPN/100 mL). Fecal coliform was not detected in MCWP-MW04S or MCWP-MW04D during the 2019 reporting period.

Nitrate as nitrogen was detected in all sixteen groundwater monitoring wells and average concentrations decreased from 4.03 mg/L in 2018 to 2.69 mg/L in 2019.

Detectable levels of TDS were detected in all sixteen groundwater wells. Average TDS concentrations in groundwater samples decreased from an average of 2,156 mg/L in 2018 to 1,868 mg/L in 2019.

9 Limitations

This report has been prepared for and is intended for the exclusive use of the City of Malibu. The contents of this report should not be relied upon by any other party without the written consent of Rincon Consultants, Inc.

Our conclusions regarding the site are based on observations of existing site conditions, our interpretation of site usage information, and the results of a limited subsurface sampling and chemical testing program. The concentrations of contaminants measured at any given location may not be representative of conditions at other locations intermediate to the locations sampled. Furthermore, conditions may change at any location as a function of time in response to natural conditions, chemical reactions, and other events. Conclusions regarding the condition of the site do not represent a warranty that all areas within the site are like those sampled.

Data Qualifiers and Definitions

Qualifiers

A	See Report Comments.
B	Analyte was present in an associated method blank.
B1	Analyte was present in a sample and associated method blank greater than MDL but less than RDL.
BQ1	No valid test replicates. Sample Toxicity is possible. Best result was reported.
BQ2	No valid test replicates.
BQ3	No valid test replicates. Final DO is less than 1.0 mg/L. Result may be greater.
BQ4	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check, however, the LCS was within criteria, validating the batch.
BQ5	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check.
C	Possible laboratory contamination.
D	RPD was not within control limits. The sample data was reported without further clarification.
D1	Lesser amount of sample was used due to insufficient amount of sample supplied.
D2	Reporting limit is elevated due to sample matrix. Target analyte was not detected above the elevated reporting limit.
D3	Insufficient sample was supplied for TCLP. Client was notified. TCLP was performed per the Client's instructions.
DW	Sample result is calculated on a dry weigh basis.
E	Concentration is estimated because it exceeds the quantification limits of the method.
I	The sample was read outside of the method required incubation period.
IR	Inconclusive Result. Legionella is present, however, there is possible non-specific agglutination preventing specific identification.
J	Reported value is estimated
L	The laboratory control sample (LCS) or laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) was out of control limits. Associated sample data was reported with qualifier.
L2	LCS did not meet recovery criteria, however, the MS and/or MSD met LCS recovery criteria, validating the batch.
M	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits due to matrix interference. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
M1	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) is not within control limits due to matrix interference.
M2	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was not within control limits. Sample result is estimated.
N1	Sample chromatography does not match the specified TPH standard pattern.
NC	The analyte concentration in the sample exceeded the spike level by a factor of four or greater, spike recovery and limits do not apply.
P	Sample was received without proper preservation according to EPA guidelines.
P1	Temperature of sample storage refrigerator was out of acceptance limits.
P2	The sample was preserved within 24 hours of collection in accordance with EPA 218.6.
P3	Per Client request, sample was composited for volatile analysis. Sample compositing for volatile analysis is not recommended due to potential loss of target analytes. Results may be biased low.
Q1	Analyte Calibration Verification exceeds criteria. The result is estimated.
Q2	Analyte calibration was not verified and the result was estimated.
Q3	Analyte initial calibration was not available or exceeds criteria. The result was estimated.
S	The surrogate recovery was out of control limits due to matrix interference. The associated method blank surrogate recovery was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
S1	The associated surrogate recovery was out of control limits; result is estimated.
S2	The surrogate was diluted out due to the presence of high concentrations of target and/or non-target compounds. Surrogate recoveries in the associated batch QC met recovery criteria.
S3	Internal Standard did not meet recovery limits. Analyte concentration is estimated.
T	Sample was extracted/analyzed past the holding time.
T1	Reanalysis was reported past hold time due to failing replicates in the original analysis (BOD only).
T2	Sample was analyzed ASAP but received and analyzed past the 15 minute holding time.
T3	Sample received and analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T4	Sample was analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T5	Reanalysis was reported past hold time. The original analysis was within hold time, but not reportable.
T6	Hold time is indeterminable due to unspecified sampling time.
T7	Sample was analyzed past hold time due to insufficient time remaining at time of receipt.

Definitions

DF	Dilution Factor
MDL	Method Detection Limit. Result is reported ND when it is less than or equal to MDL.
ND	Analyte was not detected or was less than the detection limit.
NR	Not Reported. See Report Comments.
RDL	Reporting Detection Limit
TIC	Tentatively Identified Compounds

Data Qualifiers and Definitions

Qualifiers

A	See Report Comments.
B	Analyte was present in an associated method blank.
B1	Analyte was present in a sample and associated method blank greater than MDL but less than RDL.
BQ1	No valid test replicates. Sample Toxicity is possible. Best result was reported.
BQ2	No valid test replicates.
BQ3	No valid test replicates. Final DO is less than 1.0 mg/L. Result may be greater.
BQ4	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check, however, the LCS was within criteria, validating the batch.
BQ5	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check.
C	Possible laboratory contamination.
D	RPD was not within control limits. The sample data was reported without further clarification.
D1	Lesser amount of sample was used due to insufficient amount of sample supplied.
D2	Reporting limit is elevated due to sample matrix. Target analyte was not detected above the elevated reporting limit.
D3	Insufficient sample was supplied for TCLP. Client was notified. TCLP was performed per the Client's instructions.
DW	Sample result is calculated on a dry weigh basis.
E	Concentration is estimated because it exceeds the quantification limits of the method.
I	The sample was read outside of the method required incubation period.
IR	Inconclusive Result. Legionella is present, however, there is possible non-specific agglutination preventing specific identification.
J	Reported value is estimated
L	The laboratory control sample (LCS) or laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) was out of control limits. Associated sample data was reported with qualifier.
L2	LCS did not meet recovery criteria, however, the MS and/or MSD met LCS recovery criteria, validating the batch.
M	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits due to matrix interference. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
M1	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) is not within control limits due to matrix interference.
M2	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was not within control limits. Sample result is estimated.
N1	Sample chromatography does not match the specified TPH standard pattern.
NC	The analyte concentration in the sample exceeded the spike level by a factor of four or greater, spike recovery and limits do not apply.
P	Sample was received without proper preservation according to EPA guidelines.
P1	Temperature of sample storage refrigerator was out of acceptance limits.
P2	The sample was preserved within 24 hours of collection in accordance with EPA 218.6.
P3	Per Client request, sample was composited for volatile analysis. Sample compositing for volatile analysis is not recommended due to potential loss of target analytes. Results may be biased low.
Q1	Analyte Calibration Verification exceeds criteria. The result is estimated.
Q2	Analyte calibration was not verified and the result was estimated.
Q3	Analyte initial calibration was not available or exceeds criteria. The result was estimated.
S	The surrogate recovery was out of control limits due to matrix interference. The associated method blank surrogate recovery was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
S1	The associated surrogate recovery was out of control limits; result is estimated.
S2	The surrogate was diluted out due to the presence of high concentrations of target and/or non-target compounds. Surrogate recoveries in the associated batch QC met recovery criteria.
S3	Internal Standard did not meet recovery limits. Analyte concentration is estimated.
T	Sample was extracted/analyzed past the holding time.
T1	Reanalysis was reported past hold time due to failing replicates in the original analysis (BOD only).
T2	Sample was analyzed ASAP but received and analyzed past the 15 minute holding time.
T3	Sample received and analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T4	Sample was analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T5	Reanalysis was reported past hold time. The original analysis was within hold time, but not reportable.
T6	Hold time is indeterminable due to unspecified sampling time.
T7	Sample was analyzed past hold time due to insufficient time remaining at time of receipt.

Definitions

DF	Dilution Factor
MDL	Method Detection Limit. Result is reported ND when it is less than or equal to MDL.
ND	Analyte was not detected or was less than the detection limit.
NR	Not Reported. See Report Comments.
RDL	Reporting Detection Limit
TIC	Tentatively Identified Compounds

Section 1

Client: Rincon Consultants

Project: Malibu- (GW) Civic Center

Date Received: 2/26/19

Sampler's Name Present: ☑ Yes ☐ No

Section 2

Sample(s) received in a cooler? ☑ Yes, How many? 2 ☐ No (skip section 2)

Sample Temp (°C) (No Cooler): _____

Sample Temp (°C), One from each cooler: #1: 7.2 #2: 6.1 #3: _____ #4: _____

(Acceptance range is < 6°C but not frozen (for Microbiology samples, acceptance range is < 10°C but not frozen). It is acceptable for samples collected the same day as sample receipt to have a higher temperature as long as there is evidence that cooling has begun.)

Shipping Information: _____

Section 3

Was the cooler packed with: ☑ Ice ☐ Ice Packs ☐ Bubble Wrap ☐ Styrofoam ☐ Paper ☐ None ☐ Other _____

Cooler Temp (°C): #1: 1.6 #2: 2.7 #3: _____ #4: _____

Section 4	YES	NO	N/A
Was a COC received?	✓
Are sample IDs present?	✓
Are sampling dates & times present?	✓
Is a relinquished signature present?	✓
Are the tests required clearly indicated on the COC?	✓
Are custody seals present?		✓
If custody seals are present, were they intact?			✓
Are all samples sealed in plastic bags? (Recommended for Microbiology samples)	✓
Did all samples arrive intact? If no, indicate in Section 4 below.	✓
Did all bottle labels agree with COC? (ID, dates and times)	✓
Were the samples collected in the correct containers for the required tests?	✓
Are the containers labeled with the correct preservatives?	✓
Is there headspace in the VOA vials greater than 5-6 mm in diameter?			✓
Was a sufficient amount of sample submitted for the requested tests?	✓

Data Qualifiers and Definitions

Qualifiers

A	See Report Comments.
B	Analyte was present in an associated method blank.
B1	Analyte was present in a sample and associated method blank greater than MDL but less than RDL.
BQ1	No valid test replicates. Sample Toxicity is possible. Best result was reported.
BQ2	No valid test replicates.
BQ3	No valid test replicates. Final DO is less than 1.0 mg/L. Result may be greater.
BQ4	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check, however, the LCS was within criteria, validating the batch.
BQ5	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check.
C	Possible laboratory contamination.
D	RPD was not within control limits. The sample data was reported without further clarification.
D1	Lesser amount of sample was used due to insufficient amount of sample supplied.
D2	Reporting limit is elevated due to sample matrix. Target analyte was not detected above the elevated reporting limit.
D3	Insufficient sample was supplied for TCLP. Client was notified. TCLP was performed per the Client's instructions.
DW	Sample result is calculated on a dry weigh basis.
E	Concentration is estimated because it exceeds the quantification limits of the method.
I	The sample was read outside of the method required incubation period.
IR	Inconclusive Result. Legionella is present, however, there is possible non-specific agglutination preventing specific identification.
J	Reported value is estimated
L	The laboratory control sample (LCS) or laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) was out of control limits. Associated sample data was reported with qualifier.
L2	LCS did not meet recovery criteria, however, the MS and/or MSD met LCS recovery criteria, validating the batch.
M	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits due to matrix interference. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
M1	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) is not within control limits due to matrix interference.
M2	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was not within control limits. Sample result is estimated.
N1	Sample chromatography does not match the specified TPH standard pattern.
NC	The analyte concentration in the sample exceeded the spike level by a factor of four or greater, spike recovery and limits do not apply.
P	Sample was received without proper preservation according to EPA guidelines.
P1	Temperature of sample storage refrigerator was out of acceptance limits.
P2	The sample was preserved within 24 hours of collection in accordance with EPA 218.6.
P3	Per Client request, sample was composited for volatile analysis. Sample compositing for volatile analysis is not recommended due to potential loss of target analytes. Results may be biased low.
Q1	Analyte Calibration Verification exceeds criteria. The result is estimated.
Q2	Analyte calibration was not verified and the result was estimated.
Q3	Analyte initial calibration was not available or exceeds criteria. The result was estimated.
S	The surrogate recovery was out of control limits due to matrix interference. The associated method blank surrogate recovery was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
S1	The associated surrogate recovery was out of control limits; result is estimated.
S2	The surrogate was diluted out due to the presence of high concentrations of target and/or non-target compounds. Surrogate recoveries in the associated batch QC met recovery criteria.
S3	Internal Standard did not meet recovery limits. Analyte concentration is estimated.
T	Sample was extracted/analyzed past the holding time.
T1	Reanalysis was reported past hold time due to failing replicates in the original analysis (BOD only).
T2	Sample was analyzed ASAP but received and analyzed past the 15 minute holding time.
T3	Sample received and analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T4	Sample was analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T5	Reanalysis was reported past hold time. The original analysis was within hold time, but not reportable.
T6	Hold time is indeterminable due to unspecified sampling time.
T7	Sample was analyzed past hold time due to insufficient time remaining at time of receipt.

Client: Rincon Consultants

Project: Malibu - Quarterly / Semi-Annual

Date Received: 2/27/19

Sampler's Name Present: ☑ Yes ☐ No

Section 2

Sample(s) received in a cooler? ☑ Yes, How many? 1 ☐ No (skip section 2)

Sample Temp (°C) (No Cooler): _____

Sample Temp (°C), One from each cooler: #1: 3.2 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

(Acceptance range is < 6°C but not frozen (for Microbiology samples, acceptance range is < 10°C but not frozen). It is acceptable for samples collected the same day as sample receipt to have a higher temperature as long as there is evidence that cooling has begun.)

Shipping Information: _____

Section 3

Was the cooler packed with: ☑ Ice ☐ Ice Packs ☐ Bubble Wrap ☐ Styrofoam ☐ Paper ☐ None ☐ Other _____

Cooler Temp (°C): #1: 1.2 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

Section 4	YES	NO	N/A
Was a COC received?	✓
Are sample IDs present?	✓
Are sampling dates & times present?	✓
Is a relinquished signature present?	✓
Are the tests required clearly indicated on the COC?	✓
Are custody seals present?		✓
If custody seals are present, were they intact?			✓
Are all samples sealed in plastic bags? (Recommended for Microbiology samples)			✓
Did all samples arrive intact? If no, indicate in Section 4 below.	✓
Did all bottle labels agree with COC? (ID, dates and times)	✓
Were the samples collected in the correct containers for the required tests?	✓
Are the containers labeled with the correct preservatives?	✓
Is there headspace in the VOA vials greater than 5-6 mm in diameter?			✓
Was a sufficient amount of sample submitted for the requested tests?	✓

Data Qualifiers and Definitions

Qualifiers

A	See Report Comments.
B	Analyte was present in an associated method blank.
B1	Analyte was present in a sample and associated method blank greater than MDL but less than RDL.
BQ1	No valid test replicates. Sample Toxicity is possible. Best result was reported.
BQ2	No valid test replicates.
BQ3	No valid test replicates. Final DO is less than 1.0 mg/L. Result may be greater.
BQ4	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check, however, the LCS was within criteria, validating the batch.
BQ5	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check.
C	Possible laboratory contamination.
D	RPD was not within control limits. The sample data was reported without further clarification.
D1	Lesser amount of sample was used due to insufficient amount of sample supplied.
D2	Reporting limit is elevated due to sample matrix. Target analyte was not detected above the elevated reporting limit.
D3	Insufficient sample was supplied for TCLP. Client was notified. TCLP was performed per the Client's instructions.
DW	Sample result is calculated on a dry weigh basis.
E	Concentration is estimated because it exceeds the quantification limits of the method.
I	The sample was read outside of the method required incubation period.
IR	Inconclusive Result. Legionella is present, however, there is possible non-specific agglutination preventing specific identification.
J	Reported value is estimated
L	The laboratory control sample (LCS) or laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) was out of control limits. Associated sample data was reported with qualifier.
L2	LCS did not meet recovery criteria, however, the MS and/or MSD met LCS recovery criteria, validating the batch.
M	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits due to matrix interference. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
M1	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) is not within control limits due to matrix interference.
M2	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was not within control limits. Sample result is estimated.
N1	Sample chromatography does not match the specified TPH standard pattern.
NC	The analyte concentration in the sample exceeded the spike level by a factor of four or greater, spike recovery and limits do not apply.
P	Sample was received without proper preservation according to EPA guidelines.
P1	Temperature of sample storage refrigerator was out of acceptance limits.
P2	The sample was preserved within 24 hours of collection in accordance with EPA 218.6.
P3	Per Client request, sample was composited for volatile analysis. Sample compositing for volatile analysis is not recommended due to potential loss of target analytes. Results may be biased low.
Q1	Analyte Calibration Verification exceeds criteria. The result is estimated.
Q2	Analyte calibration was not verified and the result was estimated.
Q3	Analyte initial calibration was not available or exceeds criteria. The result was estimated.
S	The surrogate recovery was out of control limits due to matrix interference. The associated method blank surrogate recovery was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
S1	The associated surrogate recovery was out of control limits; result is estimated.
S2	The surrogate was diluted out due to the presence of high concentrations of target and/or non-target compounds. Surrogate recoveries in the associated batch QC met recovery criteria.
S3	Internal Standard did not meet recovery limits. Analyte concentration is estimated.
T	Sample was extracted/analyzed past the holding time.
T1	Reanalysis was reported past hold time due to failing replicates in the original analysis (BOD only).
T2	Sample was analyzed ASAP but received and analyzed past the 15 minute holding time.
T3	Sample received and analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T4	Sample was analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T5	Reanalysis was reported past hold time. The original analysis was within hold time, but not reportable.
T6	Hold time is indeterminable due to unspecified sampling time.
T7	Sample was analyzed past hold time due to insufficient time remaining at time of receipt.

Definitions

DF	Dilution Factor
MDL	Method Detection Limit. Result is reported ND when it is less than or equal to MDL.
ND	Analyte was not detected or was less than the detection limit.
NR	Not Reported. See Report Comments.
RDL	Reporting Detection Limit
TIC	Tentatively Identified Compounds

Data Qualifiers and Definitions

Qualifiers

A	See Report Comments.
B	Analyte was present in an associated method blank.
B1	Analyte was present in a sample and associated method blank greater than MDL but less than RDL.
BQ1	No valid test replicates. Sample Toxicity is possible. Best result was reported.
BQ2	No valid test replicates.
BQ3	No valid test replicates. Final DO is less than 1.0 mg/L. Result may be greater.
BQ4	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check, however, the LCS was within criteria, validating the batch.
BQ5	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check.
C	Possible laboratory contamination.
D	RPD was not within control limits. The sample data was reported without further clarification.
D1	Lesser amount of sample was used due to insufficient amount of sample supplied.
D2	Reporting limit is elevated due to sample matrix. Target analyte was not detected above the elevated reporting limit.
D3	Insufficient sample was supplied for TCLP. Client was notified. TCLP was performed per the Client's instructions.
DW	Sample result is calculated on a dry weigh basis.
E	Concentration is estimated because it exceeds the quantification limits of the method.
I	The sample was read outside of the method required incubation period.
IR	Inconclusive Result. Legionella is present, however, there is possible non-specific agglutination preventing specific identification.
J	Reported value is estimated
L	The laboratory control sample (LCS) or laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) was out of control limits. Associated sample data was reported with qualifier.
L2	LCS did not meet recovery criteria, however, the MS and/or MSD met LCS recovery criteria, validating the batch.
M	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits due to matrix interference. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
M1	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) is not within control limits due to matrix interference.
M2	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was not within control limits. Sample result is estimated.
N1	Sample chromatography does not match the specified TPH standard pattern.
NC	The analyte concentration in the sample exceeded the spike level by a factor of four or greater, spike recovery and limits do not apply.
P	Sample was received without proper preservation according to EPA guidelines.
P1	Temperature of sample storage refrigerator was out of acceptance limits.
P2	The sample was preserved within 24 hours of collection in accordance with EPA 218.6.
P3	Per Client request, sample was composited for volatile analysis. Sample compositing for volatile analysis is not recommended due to potential loss of target analytes. Results may be biased low.
Q1	Analyte Calibration Verification exceeds criteria. The result is estimated.
Q2	Analyte calibration was not verified and the result was estimated.
Q3	Analyte initial calibration was not available or exceeds criteria. The result was estimated.
S	The surrogate recovery was out of control limits due to matrix interference. The associated method blank surrogate recovery was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
S1	The associated surrogate recovery was out of control limits; result is estimated.
S2	The surrogate was diluted out due to the presence of high concentrations of target and/or non-target compounds. Surrogate recoveries in the associated batch QC met recovery criteria.
S3	Internal Standard did not meet recovery limits. Analyte concentration is estimated.
T	Sample was extracted/analyzed past the holding time.
T1	Reanalysis was reported past hold time due to failing replicates in the original analysis (BOD only).
T2	Sample was analyzed ASAP but received and analyzed past the 15 minute holding time.
T3	Sample received and analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T4	Sample was analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T5	Reanalysis was reported past hold time. The original analysis was within hold time, but not reportable.
T6	Hold time is indeterminable due to unspecified sampling time.
T7	Sample was analyzed past hold time due to insufficient time remaining at time of receipt.

SAMPLE ACCEPTANCE CHECKLIST

Section 1

Client: Rincon Consultants

Project: Malibu - Quarterly / Semi-Annual

Date Received: 2/27/19

Sampler's Name Present: ☑ Yes ☐ No

Section 2

Sample(s) received in a cooler? ☑ Yes, How many? 1 ☐ No (skip section 2)

Sample Temp (°C) (No Cooler): _____

Sample Temp (°C), One from each cooler: #1: 3.2 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

(Acceptance range is < 6°C but not frozen (for Microbiology samples, acceptance range is < 10°C but not frozen). It is acceptable for samples collected the same day as sample receipt to have a higher temperature as long as there is evidence that cooling has begun.)

Shipping Information: _____

Section 3

Was the cooler packed with: ☑ Ice ☐ Ice Packs ☐ Bubble Wrap ☐ Styrofoam ☐ Paper ☐ None ☐ Other _____

Cooler Temp (°C): #1: 1.2 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

Section 4	YES	NO	N/A
Was a COC received?	✓
Are sample IDs present?	✓
Are sampling dates & times present?	✓
Is a relinquished signature present?	✓
Are the tests required clearly indicated on the COC?	✓
Are custody seals present?		✓
If custody seals are present, were they intact?			✓
Are all samples sealed in plastic bags? (Recommended for Microbiology samples)	✓
Did all samples arrive intact? If no, indicate in Section 4 below.	✓
Did all bottle labels agree with COC? (ID, dates and times)		✓
Were the samples collected in the correct containers for the required tests?	✓
Are the containers labeled with the correct preservatives?	✓
Is there headspace in the VOA vials greater than 5-6 mm in diameter?			✓
Was a sufficient amount of sample submitted for the requested tests?	✓

Section 5 Explanations/Comments

Oil + Grease bottle ID did not match COC

Section 6

For discrepancies, how was the Project Manager notified? ☐ Verbal PM Initials: RC 2-27 Date/Time _____

☑ Email (email sent to/on): RC / 2-27-19

Data Qualifiers and Definitions

Qualifiers

A	See Report Comments.
B	Analyte was present in an associated method blank.
B1	Analyte was present in a sample and associated method blank greater than MDL but less than RDL.
BQ1	No valid test replicates. Sample Toxicity is possible. Best result was reported.
BQ2	No valid test replicates.
BQ3	No valid test replicates. Final DO is less than 1.0 mg/L. Result may be greater.
BQ4	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check, however, the LCS was within criteria, validating the batch.
BQ5	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check.
C	Possible laboratory contamination.
D	RPD was not within control limits. The sample data was reported without further clarification.
D1	Lesser amount of sample was used due to insufficient amount of sample supplied.
D2	Reporting limit is elevated due to sample matrix. Target analyte was not detected above the elevated reporting limit.
D3	Insufficient sample was supplied for TCLP. Client was notified. TCLP was performed per the Client's instructions.
DW	Sample result is calculated on a dry weigh basis.
E	Concentration is estimated because it exceeds the quantification limits of the method.
I	The sample was read outside of the method required incubation period.
IR	Inconclusive Result. Legionella is present, however, there is possible non-specific agglutination preventing specific identification.
J	Reported value is estimated
L	The laboratory control sample (LCS) or laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) was out of control limits. Associated sample data was reported with qualifier.
L2	LCS did not meet recovery criteria, however, the MS and/or MSD met LCS recovery criteria, validating the batch.
M	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits due to matrix interference. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
M1	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) is not within control limits due to matrix interference.
M2	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was not within control limits. Sample result is estimated.
N1	Sample chromatography does not match the specified TPH standard pattern.
NC	The analyte concentration in the sample exceeded the spike level by a factor of four or greater, spike recovery and limits do not apply.
P	Sample was received without proper preservation according to EPA guidelines.
P1	Temperature of sample storage refrigerator was out of acceptance limits.
P2	The sample was preserved within 24 hours of collection in accordance with EPA 218.6.
P3	Per Client request, sample was composited for volatile analysis. Sample compositing for volatile analysis is not recommended due to potential loss of target analytes. Results may be biased low.
Q1	Analyte Calibration Verification exceeds criteria. The result is estimated.
Q2	Analyte calibration was not verified and the result was estimated.
Q3	Analyte initial calibration was not available or exceeds criteria. The result was estimated.
S	The surrogate recovery was out of control limits due to matrix interference. The associated method blank surrogate recovery was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
S1	The associated surrogate recovery was out of control limits; result is estimated.
S2	The surrogate was diluted out due to the presence of high concentrations of target and/or non-target compounds. Surrogate recoveries in the associated batch QC met recovery criteria.
S3	Internal Standard did not meet recovery limits. Analyte concentration is estimated.
T	Sample was extracted/analyzed past the holding time.
T1	Reanalysis was reported past hold time due to failing replicates in the original analysis (BOD only).
T2	Sample was analyzed ASAP but received and analyzed past the 15 minute holding time.
T3	Sample received and analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T4	Sample was analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T5	Reanalysis was reported past hold time. The original analysis was within hold time, but not reportable.
T6	Hold time is indeterminable due to unspecified sampling time.
T7	Sample was analyzed past hold time due to insufficient time remaining at time of receipt.

SAMPLE ACCEPTANCE CHECKLIST

Section 1

Client: Rincon Consultants

Project: Malibu - Quarterly / Semi-Annual

Date Received: 2/27/19

Sampler's Name Present: ☑ Yes ☐ No

Section 2

Sample(s) received in a cooler? ☑ Yes, How many? 1 ☐ No (skip section 2)

Sample Temp (°C) (No Cooler): _____

Sample Temp (°C), One from each cooler: #1: 3.2 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

(Acceptance range is < 6°C but not frozen (for Microbiology samples, acceptance range is < 10°C but not frozen). It is acceptable for samples collected the same day as sample receipt to have a higher temperature as long as there is evidence that cooling has begun.)

Shipping Information: _____

Section 3

Was the cooler packed with: ☑ Ice ☐ Ice Packs ☐ Bubble Wrap ☐ Styrofoam ☐ Paper ☐ None ☐ Other _____

Cooler Temp (°C): #1: 1.2 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

Section 4	YES	NO	N/A
Was a COC received?	✓
Are sample IDs present?	✓
Are sampling dates & times present?	✓
Is a relinquished signature present?	✓
Are the tests required clearly indicated on the COC?	✓
Are custody seals present?		✓
If custody seals are present, were they intact?			✓
Are all samples sealed in plastic bags? (Recommended for Microbiology samples)	✓
Did all samples arrive intact? If no, indicate in Section 4 below.	✓
Did all bottle labels agree with COC? (ID, dates and times)	✓
Were the samples collected in the correct containers for the required tests?	✓
Are the containers labeled with the correct preservatives?	✓
Is there headspace in the VOA vials greater than 5-6 mm in diameter?			✓
Was a sufficient amount of sample submitted for the requested tests?	✓

Section 5 Explanations/Comments

Section 6

For discrepancies, how was the Project Manager notified? ☐ Verbal PM Initials: _____ Date/Time _____

☐ Email (email sent to/on): _____ / _____

Data Qualifiers and Definitions

Qualifiers

A	See Report Comments.
B	Analyte was present in an associated method blank.
B1	Analyte was present in a sample and associated method blank greater than MDL but less than RDL.
BQ1	No valid test replicates. Sample Toxicity is possible. Best result was reported.
BQ2	No valid test replicates.
BQ3	No valid test replicates. Final DO is less than 1.0 mg/L. Result may be greater.
BQ4	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check, however, the LCS was within criteria, validating the batch.
BQ5	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check.
C	Possible laboratory contamination.
D	RPD was not within control limits. The sample data was reported without further clarification.
D1	Lesser amount of sample was used due to insufficient amount of sample supplied.
D2	Reporting limit is elevated due to sample matrix. Target analyte was not detected above the elevated reporting limit.
D3	Insufficient sample was supplied for TCLP. Client was notified. TCLP was performed per the Client's instructions.
DW	Sample result is calculated on a dry weigh basis.
E	Concentration is estimated because it exceeds the quantification limits of the method.
I	The sample was read outside of the method required incubation period.
IR	Inconclusive Result. Legionella is present, however, there is possible non-specific agglutination preventing specific identification.
J	Reported value is estimated
L	The laboratory control sample (LCS) or laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) was out of control limits. Associated sample data was reported with qualifier.
L2	LCS did not meet recovery criteria, however, the MS and/or MSD met LCS recovery criteria, validating the batch.
M	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits due to matrix interference. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
M1	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) is not within control limits due to matrix interference.
M2	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was not within control limits. Sample result is estimated.
N1	Sample chromatography does not match the specified TPH standard pattern.
NC	The analyte concentration in the sample exceeded the spike level by a factor of four or greater, spike recovery and limits do not apply.
P	Sample was received without proper preservation according to EPA guidelines.
P1	Temperature of sample storage refrigerator was out of acceptance limits.
P2	The sample was preserved within 24 hours of collection in accordance with EPA 218.6.
P3	Per Client request, sample was composited for volatile analysis. Sample compositing for volatile analysis is not recommended due to potential loss of target analytes. Results may be biased low.
Q1	Analyte Calibration Verification exceeds criteria. The result is estimated.
Q2	Analyte calibration was not verified and the result was estimated.
Q3	Analyte initial calibration was not available or exceeds criteria. The result was estimated.
S	The surrogate recovery was out of control limits due to matrix interference. The associated method blank surrogate recovery was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
S1	The associated surrogate recovery was out of control limits; result is estimated.
S2	The surrogate was diluted out due to the presence of high concentrations of target and/or non-target compounds. Surrogate recoveries in the associated batch QC met recovery criteria.
S3	Internal Standard did not meet recovery limits. Analyte concentration is estimated.
T	Sample was extracted/analyzed past the holding time.
T1	Reanalysis was reported past hold time due to failing replicates in the original analysis (BOD only).
T2	Sample was analyzed ASAP but received and analyzed past the 15 minute holding time.
T3	Sample received and analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T4	Sample was analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T5	Reanalysis was reported past hold time. The original analysis was within hold time, but not reportable.
T6	Hold time is indeterminable due to unspecified sampling time.
T7	Sample was analyzed past hold time due to insufficient time remaining at time of receipt.

Definitions

DF	Dilution Factor
MDL	Method Detection Limit. Result is reported ND when it is less than or equal to MDL.
ND	Analyte was not detected or was less than the detection limit.
NR	Not Reported. See Report Comments.

Data Qualifiers and Definitions

Qualifiers

A	See Report Comments.
B	Analyte was present in an associated method blank.
B1	Analyte was present in a sample and associated method blank greater than MDL but less than RDL.
BQ1	No valid test replicates. Sample Toxicity is possible. Best result was reported.
BQ2	No valid test replicates.
BQ3	No valid test replicates. Final DO is less than 1.0 mg/L. Result may be greater.
BQ4	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check, however, the LCS was within criteria, validating the batch.
BQ5	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check.
C	Possible laboratory contamination.
D	RPD was not within control limits. The sample data was reported without further clarification.
D1	Lesser amount of sample was used due to insufficient amount of sample supplied.
D2	Reporting limit is elevated due to sample matrix. Target analyte was not detected above the elevated reporting limit.
D3	Insufficient sample was supplied for TCLP. Client was notified. TCLP was performed per the Client's instructions.
DW	Sample result is calculated on a dry weigh basis.
E	Concentration is estimated because it exceeds the quantification limits of the method.
I	The sample was read outside of the method required incubation period.
IR	Inconclusive Result. Legionella is present, however, there is possible non-specific agglutination preventing specific identification.
J	Reported value is estimated
L	The laboratory control sample (LCS) or laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) was out of control limits. Associated sample data was reported with qualifier.
L2	LCS did not meet recovery criteria, however, the MS and/or MSD met LCS recovery criteria, validating the batch.
M	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits due to matrix interference. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
M1	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) is not within control limits due to matrix interference.
M2	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was not within control limits. Sample result is estimated.
N1	Sample chromatography does not match the specified TPH standard pattern.
NC	The analyte concentration in the sample exceeded the spike level by a factor of four or greater, spike recovery and limits do not apply.
P	Sample was received without proper preservation according to EPA guidelines.
P1	Temperature of sample storage refrigerator was out of acceptance limits.
P2	The sample was preserved within 24 hours of collection in accordance with EPA 218.6.
P3	Per Client request, sample was composited for volatile analysis. Sample compositing for volatile analysis is not recommended due to potential loss of target analytes. Results may be biased low.
Q1	Analyte Calibration Verification exceeds criteria. The result is estimated.
Q2	Analyte calibration was not verified and the result was estimated.
Q3	Analyte initial calibration was not available or exceeds criteria. The result was estimated.
S	The surrogate recovery was out of control limits due to matrix interference. The associated method blank surrogate recovery was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
S1	The associated surrogate recovery was out of control limits; result is estimated.
S2	The surrogate was diluted out due to the presence of high concentrations of target and/or non-target compounds. Surrogate recoveries in the associated batch QC met recovery criteria.
S3	Internal Standard did not meet recovery limits. Analyte concentration is estimated.
T	Sample was extracted/analyzed past the holding time.
T1	Reanalysis was reported past hold time due to failing replicates in the original analysis (BOD only).
T2	Sample was analyzed ASAP but received and analyzed past the 15 minute holding time.
T3	Sample received and analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T4	Sample was analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T5	Reanalysis was reported past hold time. The original analysis was within hold time, but not reportable.
T6	Hold time is indeterminable due to unspecified sampling time.
T7	Sample was analyzed past hold time due to insufficient time remaining at time of receipt.

Definitions

DF	Dilution Factor
MDL	Method Detection Limit. Result is reported ND when it is less than or equal to MDL.
ND	Analyte was not detected or was less than the detection limit.
NR	Not Reported. See Report Comments.

SAMPLE ACCEPTANCE CHECKLIST

Section 1

Client: Rincon

Project: Malibu - Quarterly/Semi Annual

Date Received: 5/9/19

Sampler's Name Present: [X] Yes [ ] No

Section 2

Sample(s) received in a cooler? [✓] Yes, How many? 1 [ ] No (skip section 2)

Sample Temp (°C) (No Cooler): _____

Sample Temp (°C), One from each cooler: #1: 9.5 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

(Acceptance range is < 6°C but not frozen (for Microbiology samples, acceptance range is < 10°C but not frozen). It is acceptable for samples collected the same day as sample receipt to have a higher temperature as long as there is evidence that cooling has begun.)

Shipping Information: _____

Section 3

Was the cooler packed with: [✓] Ice [ ] Ice Packs [ ] Bubble Wrap [ ] Styrofoam [ ] Paper [ ] None [ ] Other _____

Cooler Temp (°C): #1: 2.6 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

Section 4	YES	NO	N/A
Was a COC received?	✓
Are sample IDs present?	✓
Are sampling dates & times present?	✓
Is a relinquished signature present?	✓
Are the tests required clearly indicated on the COC?	✓
Are custody seals present?		✓
If custody seals are present, were they intact?			✓
Are all samples sealed in plastic bags? (Recommended for Microbiology samples)	✓
Did all samples arrive intact? If no, indicate in Section 4 below.	✓
Did all bottle labels agree with COC? (ID, dates and times)	✓
Were the samples collected in the correct containers for the required tests?	✓
Are the containers labeled with the correct preservatives?	✓
Is there headspace in the VOA vials greater than 5-6 mm in diameter?			✓
Was a sufficient amount of sample submitted for the requested tests?	✓

Section 5 Explanations/Comments

Section 6

For discrepancies, how was the Project Manager notified? [ ] Verbal PM Initials: _____ Date/Time _____

[ ] Email (email sent to/on): _____ / _____

Data Qualifiers and Definitions

Qualifiers

A	See Report Comments.
B	Analyte was present in an associated method blank.
B1	Analyte was present in a sample and associated method blank greater than MDL but less than RDL.
BQ1	No valid test replicates. Sample Toxicity is possible. Best result was reported.
BQ2	No valid test replicates.
BQ3	No valid test replicates. Final DO is less than 1.0 mg/L. Result may be greater.
BQ4	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check, however, the LCS was within criteria, validating the batch.
BQ5	Minor Dissolved Oxygen loss was observed in the blank water check.
C	Possible laboratory contamination.
D	RPD was not within control limits. The sample data was reported without further clarification.
D1	Lesser amount of sample was used due to insufficient amount of sample supplied.
D2	Reporting limit is elevated due to sample matrix. Target analyte was not detected above the elevated reporting limit.
D3	Insufficient sample was supplied for TCLP. Client was notified. TCLP was performed per the Client's instructions.
DW	Sample result is calculated on a dry weigh basis.
E	Concentration is estimated because it exceeds the quantification limits of the method.
I	The sample was read outside of the method required incubation period.
IR	Inconclusive Result. Legionella is present, however, there is possible non-specific agglutination preventing specific identification.
J	Reported value is estimated
L	The laboratory control sample (LCS) or laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) was out of control limits. Associated sample data was reported with qualifier.
L2	LCS did not meet recovery criteria, however, the MS and/or MSD met LCS recovery criteria, validating the batch.
M	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits due to matrix interference. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
M1	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) is not within control limits due to matrix interference.
M2	The matrix spike (MS) or matrix spike duplicate (MSD) was not within control limits. The associated LCS and/or LCSD was not within control limits. Sample result is estimated.
N1	Sample chromatography does not match the specified TPH standard pattern.
NC	The analyte concentration in the sample exceeded the spike level by a factor of four or greater, spike recovery and limits do not apply.
P	Sample was received without proper preservation according to EPA guidelines.
P1	Temperature of sample storage refrigerator was out of acceptance limits.
P2	The sample was preserved within 24 hours of collection in accordance with EPA 218.6.
P3	Per Client request, sample was composited for volatile analysis. Sample compositing for volatile analysis is not recommended due to potential loss of target analytes. Results may be biased low.
Q1	Analyte Calibration Verification exceeds criteria. The result is estimated.
Q2	Analyte calibration was not verified and the result was estimated.
Q3	Analyte initial calibration was not available or exceeds criteria. The result was estimated.
S	The surrogate recovery was out of control limits due to matrix interference. The associated method blank surrogate recovery was within control limits and the sample data was reported without further clarification.
S1	The associated surrogate recovery was out of control limits; result is estimated.
S2	The surrogate was diluted out due to the presence of high concentrations of target and/or non-target compounds. Surrogate recoveries in the associated batch QC met recovery criteria.
S3	Internal Standard did not meet recovery limits. Analyte concentration is estimated.
T	Sample was extracted/analyzed past the holding time.
T1	Reanalysis was reported past hold time due to failing replicates in the original analysis (BOD only).
T2	Sample was analyzed ASAP but received and analyzed past the 15 minute holding time.
T3	Sample received and analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T4	Sample was analyzed out of hold time per client's request.
T5	Reanalysis was reported past hold time. The original analysis was within hold time, but not reportable.
T6	Hold time is indeterminable due to unspecified sampling time.
T7	Sample was analyzed past hold time due to insufficient time remaining at time of receipt.

Definitions

DF	Dilution Factor
MDL	Method Detection Limit. Result is reported ND when it is less than or equal to MDL.

SAMPLE ACCEPTANCE CHECKLIST

Section 1

Client: Rincon Project: Malibu - Quarterly / Semi Annual

Date Received: 5/8/19 Sampler's Name Present: [X] Yes [ ] No

Section 2

Sample(s) received in a cooler? [✓] Yes, How many? 1 [ ] No (skip section 2) Sample Temp (°C) (No Cooler): _____

Sample Temp (°C), One from each cooler: #1: 13.1 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

(Acceptance range is < 6°C but not frozen (for Microbiology samples, acceptance range is < 10°C but not frozen). It is acceptable for samples collected the same day as sample receipt to have a higher temperature as long as there is evidence that cooling has begun.)

Shipping Information: _____

Section 3

Was the cooler packed with: [✓] Ice [ ] Ice Packs [ ] Bubble Wrap [ ] Styrofoam [ ] Paper [ ] None [ ] Other _____

Cooler Temp (°C): #1: 0.1 #2: _____ #3: _____ #4: _____

Section 4	YES	NO	N/A
Was a COC received?	✓
Are sample IDs present?	✓
Are sampling dates & times present?	✓
Is a relinquished signature present?	✓
Are the tests required clearly indicated on the COC?	✓
Are custody seals present?		✓
If custody seals are present, were they intact?			✓
Are all samples sealed in plastic bags? (Recommended for Microbiology samples)	✓
Did all samples arrive intact? If no, indicate in Section 4 below.	✓
Did all bottle labels agree with COC? (ID, dates and times)	✓
Were the samples collected in the correct containers for the required tests?	✓
Are the containers labeled with the correct preservatives?	✓
Is there headspace in the VOA vials greater than 5-6 mm in diameter?			✓
Was a sufficient amount of sample submitted for the requested tests?	✓

Final report

Lab Request: 418338
Report Date: 12/02/2019
Date Received: 08/14/2019
Client ID: 15888

This laboratory request covers the following listed samples which were analyzed for the parameters indicated on the attached Analytical Result Report. All analyses were conducted using the appropriate methods. Methods accredited by NELAC are indicated on the report. This cover letter is an integral part of the final report.

Sample #	Client Sample ID
418338-001	MCWP-MW075
418338-002	MCWP-MW07D
418338-003	SMBRP-12
