

SENIOR POETRY IN THE CURRENT LIFE

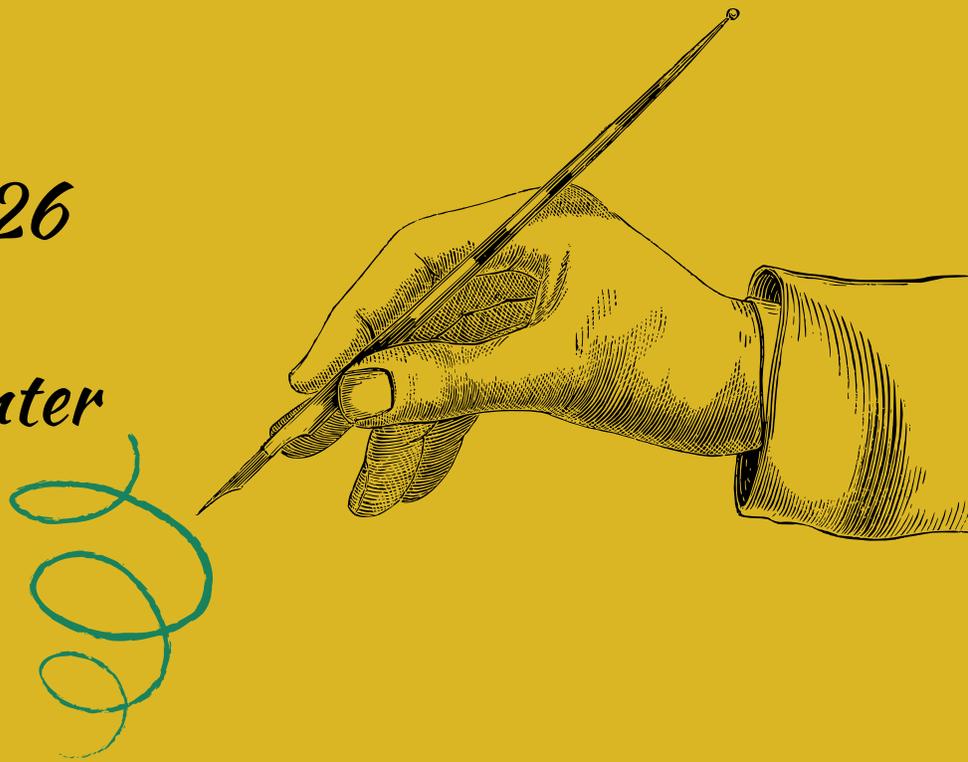

Ages 55+

Thursday, March 26

10am - 12pm

Malibu Senior Center

Complimentary

Explore a wide variety of poetry; in particular, as adventure, confirmation, and renewal. Participants will use poetry as a means to examine their life experiences including flow state and life aspirations and discuss with their peers. Designed to refresh older adults' enjoyment and increase their appreciation of poetry as a means of expression, and explore poetry in relation to other types of literature, in particular in its use of language and imagery. An RSVP is required. Instructed by Malibu Poet Laureate Charlotte Ward.